Eagle tennis impressive at Lindsborg

The Colby Lady Eagle netters had a good outing in Lindsborg this past weekend. The Eagles had a chance to see some top 4A tennis schools and get some quality matches in to prepare them for regionals next month.

Katie Lang earned a 3rd place finish at the #1 singles spot with a 4-1 record. She defeated Jamie Johnson of Smoky Valley 7-3 in the first round, Julie Cox of Pratt 7-0 in the second round. She was defeated by Jessica Ball of Wichita Collegiate 7-3 in the 3rd round and came back to defeat Andrea Hamilton of Baldwin 7-1 in the final round. In the finals she defeated Stasia Spare of Larned 7-0.

Crystal Mannebach and Logan Wark, #1 doubles, had a good day finishing fifth with a 3-2 record. They came out strong defeating a tough Smoky Valley team comprised of Ruggiero and Hubele 7-5. They faced a stingy Pratt team of Phillips and Roberts who were state qualifiers in singles last year. They kept it close until Pratt came away with a 7-4 win. Wichita Collegiate's Healy and Felt defeated the duo 7-2. Colby bounced back and defeated Hitchcock/Ferris of Baldwin 7-4. In the finals they defeated Barber and Scofield of Nickerson 7-1.

At #2 singles Rachel Funk had a challenging day taking two of her five matches to a tie-breaker but unable to come up with the wins. She finished the day with a 2-3 record. She defeated Amanda Wann of Smoky Valley 7-3. Kristen Sandborn of Pratt won in a tie-breaker 7-6 (7-5). She was then defeated by Ellie Kragt of Wichita Collegiate 7-0. In the final round she was defeated in a tie-breaker by Maddie Conduff of Baldwin 7-6 (9-7). In the finals she defeated Katie Schartz of Larned 7-3.

At #2 doubles the duo of Nikole Schroeder and Robin Wilson finished 3-2 for a fifth place finish. They defeated Cox and Gant of Smoky Valley 7-6 (7-4) in a tie-breaker. They were defeated by Hall and Roberts of Pratt 7-3. They were defeated by Myer and Futo of Wichita Collegiate 7-2. The two came back and won there last two matches, the first against Ikenberry and Garman of Baldwin 7-5. They defeated Hudson and Lynam of Smoky Valley 7-1 in the finals.

Head coach Mike Fortkamp said, "Any time you can go to this meet and smoke Smoky Valley you are doing something right."

Former head girls tennis coach Mike Sprenkle was at the meet and was impressed with how well the team competed.

"Wichita Collegiate is always tough along with Pratt and Baldwin. I was just thrilled that we played as well as we did to come away with some medals and finish in the top 5 as a team," Fortkamp said. "That just doesn't happen too often with these talented eastern schools."

The team will be back in action in Russell today and again in Garden City on Saturday.

CBS slapped with big fine

WASHINGTON (AP) — CBS was fined a record $550,000 by federal regulators for Janet Jackson's "wardrobe malfunction," which exposed the singer's breast during the Super Bowl halftime show.

The Federal Communications Commission voted unanimously to slap each of the 20 CBS-owned television stations with the maximum indecency penalty of $27,500.

The total penalty of $550,000 is the largest fine levied against a television broadcaster. Most of the FCC's bigger fines have been against radio stations.
