Heritage Center event Saturday in Brewster

Editor's note: This is the second part of the Brewster News. The first part appeared in Thursday's edition. Each week, Sally Michael, who serves as the Brewster correspondent, updates readers on happenings in that community. The following is the remaining portion of this week's highlights.

In addition to inviting everyone to the annual Northwest Kansas Heritage Center's Hot Dog/Watermelon feed on Sunday, those planning to attend should know it will be a free will offering with money used to support the center's activities for the coming year. They need the support and we need the Heritage Center, so let's all do our part.

Now I would like to thank everyone that was such wonderful support during the last few weeks with Roger's dad, LaVelle. The nurses, aides and helpers were wonderful and there were so many that brought food to the house or the Community Church for the dinner and all the ones that filled in for me at the Senior Center. Do you know, when you start thanking folks for being so great it isn't the big things that matter, it's the little things that really make a difference. One person we really want to thank is Pastor Chuck Baker who was such a friend. We also thank Greg for coming up and caring for his dad in those last difficult days. Again, thanks to all of you that made a difficult time so much easier.

Our travelers included Greg's family from Claremore, Okla. Also Brian, Michele, Sam and Hannah from Bennington; Barry, Kim, Rebeckah and Andrew of Salina;
