Marjorie Ann Cranston

Marjorie Anne (Blanc) Cranston, 77, of Colby, died Tuesday, Sept. 21, 2004 at Presbyterian/St. Luke's Hospital in Denver.

Services were on Friday, Sept. 24, 2004 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Colby with Pastor Richard D. Kaczor of Hays officiating. Burial was at Beulah Cemetery.

Mrs. Cranston is survived by her husband John of Colby; two daughters, Debbie of Hill City and Linda of Colby; eight grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a sister, Drusilla Blanc of Oakland, Calif.; two sisters-in-law, Shirley Cranston of Colby and Ruth Cranston of California.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry A. and Rosie (Pope) Blanc.

Mrs. Cranston was born June 27, 1927 in Los Angeles, Calif. and raised in California. She attended school in Richmond and was later employed with Purity Foods in San Francisco where she was trained to be a keypunch operator.

She was employed with Shaklee Corporation, Safeway, Motor Vehicle, Naval Supply Depot, Caterpillar and DelMonte as a keypunch operator.

She married John H. Cranston on May 20, 1950 in Reno, Nev.

They moved to Colby in 1971 and she adapted to a new way of life helping with the family custom harvesting business as a truck driver and cook. She also enjoyed cooking for her family and reading.

Rain was welcome sight; resident moves to Selden

We are very thankful for the rain that we received this week. It was just beautiful and gave us all a boost!

Seth Gilbert recently moved from Rexford to Selden. He bought the Gus Juenemann home there in town, a nice little brick place built by Bobby Koerperich in 1996.

Cleda Moeder and Buck Harper went to Trenton over the weekend. The weather wasn't very cooperative for fishing.

The youth group kick off was on Wednesday evening. A number of young people came out to help with a city wide scavenger hunt, stopping at various homes and looking for some rather strange items. The sponsors for the high school are Lane and Patty Purcell and Shawn Spresser.

The sponsors for the middle school are Vicki Allison, Annie Staats and Dwight Williams. They will welcome all middle school and high school students to join them every Wednesday night from 6 to 8 p.m.

Rexford Community Church would like to invite any children from first to sixth grade to join the Kid's Club.

They will meet every Wednesday after school until 5:30 p.m. They began this month on Wednesday with an exciting party!

A fun-filled year of food, fun and fellowship is in store for the children. An instructor for the first grade is still being sought. For more information call Lane or Patty Purcell at 687-3333, Peggy Dible-855-2387, Marcie Gilbert-687-4956 or Joan Todd.

Visitors at the home of Sondra Barnett this week were Jeannie Bacon, Marcie Gilbert, Peggy Dible, Dennis and Vicki Allison.

After spending a couple weeks with her mother, Zula Horenik, Linda Lunsy went back to her home in California.

Her brother Gary Delzeit took her to Denver on Tuesday and on the same trip, Gary picked up his twin brother Terry at the airport.

Terry is from Austin, Texas and they wanted to spend their 50th birthday together with Zula and Lawrence Horenik. Gary's friend Tina Walters, Rexford, made a beautiful cake and she and her children Aisha and Ethan joined the party.

The next day, Terry and Gary went fishing, along with Larry Horenik, Colby at the lake at Norton.

Gary took Terry back to the plane in Denver on Saturday.

Attendees at Koffee Klatch this week were Deb Stepper, Velma Barnett, Liz Rall, Freda Ketchum, Margaret Arasmith, Delores Dible, Sondra Barnett, Berneda Zoberst, Hulda Wark and Grace Cheney.

On Sunday, Sept. 19, Logan Manor held their pot luck dinner for the residents, family and friends. Delores and De Ann Dible went to the event as guests of Hazel Richardson.

Some of the members of the 1954 graduating class from Rexford had a luncheon party at the Colonial Steak House at Oakley this week. Members that attended were Connie Phillips, Concord, AR; Eunice Sanford, Rexford; and Lewis Forbes and his wife, California. Lewis' sister Alberta and husband Don Sites, Grinnell, also joined the group.

Donnie Hughes is also a member of that class, but was unable to attend.

Hulda Wark and Sondra Barnett traveled to Logan this week to visit Hazel Richardson. They also made an attempt to visit Clara Gillum, however after a 15 mile scenic drive trying to find their farm, it was put on hold for another time!

Margaret Arasmith's daughter Linda and husband, Rocky Parker and his father RJ, La Grange, Ill., were here for the funeral of their grandmother Eleanor Muse.

Eunice Sanford accompanied her son Ken to Hays where he had some ear surgery. A couple of months ago, while welding, a hot coal flew into Ken's ear, was very painful and did some damage before burning out. Ken was in the hospital overnight and the doctor is hopeful that after all healing takes place, Ken will again have normal hearing. We all hope so too.

The junior varsity Golden Plains High School volleyball team took first place in their pool at the tournament at Brewster Saturday.

There were 3 pools of 4 teams each. They didn't have a play-off between the pools. The next game is scheduled for Tuesday at Jennings. The middle school lost both their volleyball and the football games last week. This week we will be playing Grinnell here on Thursday.

The volleyball game will start at 3 p.m. and the football game will start at 4:30 p.m.

The high school boys lost their football game last week. Hope we do better this week when we play at Brewster.

There is a computer room with internet available to the public for use from 9 a.m. to noon, Monday to Friday at Golden Plains High School.

This is quite a nice opportunity for us. We are asked to stop in at the office to check in before making our way to the second floor computer room.

Sondra Barnett and Velma Barnett attended the Kansas West Area

Aglow fall retreat in Hays today and Saturday.

The city is putting in a new of sidewalk on main street at the south end, west side. They have completed the one in front of the old hotel. Things are looking really nice!

I'm sorry to say that it has been reported to me that someone in town had an antique tractor stolen. If there is any information about this situation, please call the Thomas County Sheriff's office.

Makin' It Happen: Hats off to the Honor Society at Golden Plains School. They picked up the litter for the two miles east of Rexford on highway 83. Mr. Kinkade is the sponsor and the members are Kristin Wark, Niki Spresser, Darcie Spresser, Valerie Broeckelman, Ashley Albers, Jessica Shaw, Scott Johnston and Jesse Miller. Thanks so much for your concern for the environment and for making the road to Rexford more beautiful. Hopefully our community will continue to help show our appreciation by keeping trash inside our vehicles until it can be properly disposed.

Wichita group to perform in Colby, area

The Wichita Children's Theatre will present a musical version of "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" at the St. Francis High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 14.

Admission will be a Western Plains Arts Association season ticket or by tickets purchased at the door for $8 for adults.

There will be no charge for children through sixth grade who attend with an adult.

In addition, four school performances are scheduled: On Thursday, Oct. 14 at 8 a.m. at Colby Elementary and at Winona Triplains at 1:30 p.m.; on Friday, Oct. 15 at Hoxie High School at 9:30 a.m. and at Sharon Springs at 1:30 p.m. (MDT). The version of the well-known tale portrays the story of three billy goats who want to cross the bridge to eat the grass on the other side, association officials said.

But the grouchy troll bully under the bridge is determined to not allow them to pass.

After some quick thinking, they make a new friend and all ends well.

These performances are made possible by Western Plains Arts Association with additional funding from the Kansas Arts Commission, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

The Western Plains Arts Association is sponsoring the Wichita Children's Theatre, which will be in the Colby area next Thursday at Colby Elementary School
