Good Trojan weekend

The Trojan wrestlers had a great weekend in Hays and the women’s basketball team destroyed the competition at the Jayhawk Shootout this past weekend.

The Trojan wrestlers made a last second change of plans and traveled to the Fort Hays State University Open this past weekend instead of to Las Vegas and Reno. What a good decision it was, as they had an outstanding weekend, medaling three wrestlers in a very tough field. According to Coach Lampe, it was the largest turnout in Hays Open history, with 287 wrestlers showing up.

Hoxie natives and freshmen Matt Gilliland and Jason Schippers both had great days. Gilliland went 4-2 to place fourth at 141 lbs. and Schippers won eight of nine matches to take third at 149 lbs. Sophomore Eric Luedke from Colby had another tremendous day, going 4-1 and placing second at 165 lbs.

Coach Lampe was very excited about the intensity level and about this team’s performance against tough competition. Remember, open tournaments have wrestlers from NCAA Division I and II schools as well as community colleges.

The Trojans travel to Kearney, Neb. this Saturday to compete in the University of Nebraska-Kearney Open. The action starts at 9 a.m..

Former Trojans are also doing well at the NCAA level. Colby native and University of Nebraska wrestler Matt Murray reached the semi-finals of the Las Vegas Open this weekend. C.B. Dollaway, who is now wrestling for Arizona State, lost in the finals Saturday in Las Vegas. Muzaffar Abdurakhmanov, who is wrestling at American University in Washington D.C., has already won two outstanding wrestler trophies this season and has beaten the number two ranked NCAA wrestler at his 157 lbs.

Lady Trojan basketball had a successful weekend at the Jayhawk Shootout. Friday they defeated Highland, 96-50, and Saturday they took care of NJCAA Division II 5th ranked Johnson County, 81-66. The Lady Trojans are now 10-0 on the season. Freshman Rita Kollo of Budapest, Hungary had an amazing weekend, scoring 25 points Friday along with nine boards. Saturday she raised the bar to 33 points and 10 rebounds, along with five steals.

The Lady Trojans next contest will be Tuesday in Colorado Springs against the Air Force JV.

The Trojan men did not fair as well at the Jayhawk Shootout, losing to Neosho County Friday, 85-57, and Cowley County Saturday, 96-59. It is still early in the year though and losses like these happen once in a while. They will bounce right back and take care of Hastings JV on Thursday. On the positive side, freshman Tezmar Caldwell (Morristown, N.J.) brought down 10 rebounds against Neosho Friday. That was the Trojan’s first double digit rebound performance of the season.

Thursday night’s game against Hastings JV will be at the Colby Community Building at 7 p.m..

Please come out and support the Trojans Thursday evening.

I hope everyone has a great week.

Eagle ladies crush Scott City, 74-31

By NICK HOWARD

Colby Free Press
The #1-ranked Colby Lady Eagles crushed the Scott City ladies on Scott’s home court Friday night, 74-31.

The pressure-oriented Eagles forced the Beavers to turn the ball over 36 times — and as a result 36 of the team’s 74 points were direct results of turnovers.

The Eagles started things off right with a 19-13 first quarter lead. At the half, the Eagles were taking a 35-25 advantage into the locker room.

In the first two quarters, the Eagles shot 52 percent from the field, with 7 points coming from the free throw line.

Colby destroyed Scott City’s hopes of a comeback in the third as they outscored the Beavers, 22-2. This put the home five in a miserable position — 57-27 facing the final quarter.

Colby continued to increase its lead in the final minutes to come up with the lopsided 74-31 score.

The Eagles allowed the Beavers to score only 6 points in the second half.

Emily Sloan led the way for Colby with 19 points. Following was Jessica Stephens 15; Lissa Mazanec 13; Brittany Kersenbrock 8; Ashley Barnes 6; Rishonna Martin 5; Zanae Baird 4; April Weaver 2; and Marcia Kaus 2.

Sloan added 13 rebounds to go with her scoring output; Stephens had 7 steals; and Mazanec, a freshman in her varsity debut, pulled down 9 rebounds.

The ladies shot 52 percent from the field and out-rebounded the Beavers 47-27.

By quarters:

Colby 19 16 22 17 = 74
Scott City 13 12 2 4 = 31

In junior varsity action, Colby won 48-16 with Aubrette Stephens scoring 13, Tasha Wagoner 12, April Weaver 12, Paige Stephens 7, and Kelly Gerstner and Darcy Brown 2 each.

The Colby High Ladies hosted Hays High on Tuesday in the Colby Community Building. Tipoff is set for 6:30 p.m.

Colby boys lose big

The Colby Eagles kicked off the new basketball season on Friday night at Scott City. The Eagles’ record: 0-1. Final score: 63-40.

Scott City’s Beavers picked up the victory, thanks to rebounding — 40-25.

The opening period found the two teams closely knitted with the Eagles trailing by just four. Unfortunately, this 14-10 lead would only increase as time went on.

At the half it was the home bunch out front 24-16, adding to the first period deficit.

Colby Jared Dinkel and Matt Augustine got into foul trouble in the third and this played in Scott City’s favor as they outscored the Eagles 24-13 to take a 48-29 lead into the final quarter.

The Eagles came to life in the final period, forcing turnovers, working hard, but the hole they dug early was too much to overcome.

Despite limited playing time, Augustine still led the Eagles with 9 points. Dusty Quenzer and Jordan Cranston followed with 7 each,
