Colby High School's Emily Sloan (left) made her move as Ashley Barnes readied to pass the ball while a Ponca City defender was a shade late in aborting the play in the championship game of the Paul Wintz Orange and Black Classic Saturday at the Colby Community Building. The Lady Eagles won 41-38, the fourth consecutive year they've won the classic.

The Colby High School Lady Eagle basketball team had their hands full, but came away with a hard-fought 41-38 win in the championship game of the Paul Wintz Orange and Black Classic tournament Saturday night in the Colby Community building.
It was the Eagles' fourth consecutive Classic title.
Both Colby and Ponca City, Okla. played aggressive defense all night, contributing to a 4-4 tie with a minute left until Lady Cat Alix McCallick hit a 3-pointer at the end of the first quarter.

McCallick hit two more at the start of the second quarter to put Ponca City up 13-4. Colby began to battle back almost immediately, but still trailed 18-12 at the half.
Colby caught a big break a little over a minute into the second half when Emily Sloan was fouled on a shot and made her free throw, cutting the deficit to three points.
Sloan got another shot in off a steal and cut the lead to one before Ponca City's Teara Lewis hit a trey to extend the lead to four.
Another basket trimmed the lead to 21-19 when Sloan drew another foul on a shot and put the Lady Eagles up 22-21. Lissa Mazanec extended the lead to 24-21, but it was short-lived.
Lady Cat Cheyenne Cartilidge drew a foul on a shot and tied the score, then Lewis took a loose ball in for a lay-up. A buzzer shot by Ponca City put the Lady Cats up 30-26 at the end of three quarters.
Another trey by McCallick made the lead 33-28, but the Lady Eagles were far from finished. They kept chipping away at the lead until Zanae Baird put them up 38-36 with 1:23 left in the game.

Colby would lead for the rest of the game, but not because of lack of effort from Ponca City. They closed the lead to 39-38, but were forced to foul to get possession.
Jessie Stephens hit both free throws with .7 seconds left to seal the win.
The Lady Eagles play again Friday at Ulysses. Game time is 6:30.

It's homecoming week

This is homecoming week at Colby Community College and the highlight of the festivities will be the basketball games on Saturday against Dodge City.

In the meantime, both teams travel to Pratt today. The Lady Beavers (3-3, 16-4) are another tough team in a tremendous conference. Like the Lady Trojans, they have been close to the top 25 rankings all season.

The Pratt men are putting together their best season in recent memory. Usually the doormat of the conference, the Beavers (5-1, 12-8) are in second place behind Garden City. The Trojans will have a tough test.

Both games can be heard on 100.3 tonight. The Lady Trojans start at 6 p.m. as usual, and the men tip off at their normal 8 p.m. time.

The Trojan wrestlers had the weekend off, but are preparing for a dual at St. Louis Meramec on Friday. Meramec is ranked 10th in the national poll. The Trojans are still sitting at number seven. This will be the final event before the West Central Regional in Colby on Saturday, Feb. 12. Look for more information on this great event in the coming weeks.

The Trojan track and field team competed in the Loper Open at the University of Nebraska-Kearney over the weekend. Present at the event was Butler County, Garden City, Fort Hays State University and of course, Kearney.

No team scores were kept, but according to head coach Jeff Becker, his squad improved on a good showing last week.

Sophomore Rocky Baalman had an impressive day, placing fourth in the 200M and sixth in the 55M. He also helped the 4x400 team to a third place finish. Freshman Carlan Arthur finished second in the 1000M, followed by sophomore Felipe Longoria who finished third. Longoria was also part of a 4x800M relay team that placed 3rd. Sophomore Jerod Kersey came through with a fourth place finish in the 3000M.

The field events were highlighted by freshmen Jenna Faimon and Cassy Hamilton. Faimon finished fourth in the triple jump with a distance of 31'10.5", and Hamilton recorded a distance of 40'11.5" in the shot put, also good enough for fourth.

The Trojans travel to Ames, Iowa on Friday for a tough meet, the Iowa State Open.

On Saturday, Feb. 26 at the Colby Bowl and the Trojan Baseball team will be hosting their third annual Trojan Try-Athlon. As you might know, this fund raising event is a bowling, pool and dart tournament, along with an auction and chili feed. This year the auction and chili feed will take place immediately following the event, instead of on Sunday as in years past. This will be a great opportunity to come meet the Trojan baseball team and to help out the program.

Remember to check out Trojan sports on the Internet at <http://www.colbycc.edu/>www.colbycc.edu. The Website has all the information you need about Trojan athletics including schedules, past game stories and rosters.

I hope everyone has a great week. *****

Colby boys finish classic in fourth place

The Colby High School boys' basketball team finished fourth with a 2-1 record in the Paul Wintz Orange and Black Classic with a 44-36 win over Ulysses Saturday at the high school gym.

The boys found themselves down 6-0 early in the first quarter and looked sluggish, but cut the lead to 11-9 before Ulysses' Eric Garcia hit back-to-back treys for a 17-9 Ulysses lead at the end of the first quarter.

Things looked to get worse for the Eagles when Scott Hilton scored on a steal to extend the Ulysses lead to 19-9 at the beginning of the second period, but looks can be deceiving.

It would be the Tigers' only basket of the quarter and their biggest lead as Colby fought their way back. Jordan Sharp hit the basket that put Colby in the lead 20-19 with three minutes left and Matt Augustine extended it to 22-19 at the half.

The third quarter found both teams trading baskets, but defense continued to be the name of the game and Colby led until the Tigers' Tyler Parks tied the score at 28 with 2:30 left in the quarter. Garcia gave the Tigers a 30-28 lead a few seconds later.

Irvin Dinkel scored back-to-back baskets, the last with 26 seconds left, to give Colby a 32-30 lead, but Ulysses Mark Bulman tied it at 32 just as the buzzer sounded.

The lead would change hands twice again before Colby took the final lead with 4:34 left when Dinkel was fouled on a lay-up and hit the extra free throw, making the score 37-36 Colby.

Augustine made it 39-36 Colby with 2:10 left, forcing Ulysses to foul to get possession. Augustine hit
