Death

Chuck Dempewolf

Visitation for Chuck Dempewolf, 46, of Colby, will be held from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Friday, at Harrison Chapel, 190 S. Franklin Ave., Colby, Kan. This information was inadvertently left out of the funeral notice in the Wednesday, Feb. 23 edition of the Free Press. Mr. Dempewolf died Monday at the University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, Kan. Services begin at 11 a.m., Saturday, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Colby.

An educational fund for Mr. Dempewolf's children has been established. Donations may be left at any Colby bank of Harrison Chapel.

Minnie Deaver

Minnie Deaver, 80, of Colby, died Thursday, Feb. 24, 2004. She died at Lantern Park Manor in Colby.

Arrangements are pending with Harrison Chapel in Colby.

Madonna A. Huddle

Madonna A. Huddle, 61, of Oakley, died Sunday, Feb. 20, 2005 at Logan County Hospital in Oakley.

Services were this morning at St. Joseph's Church in Oakley with Father Roger Meitl officiating. Burial was at St. Joseph's Cemetery in Oakley.

The rosary and wake service was held Wednesday at Kennedy-Koster Funeral Home in Oakley.

Mrs. Huddle is survived by special friend Ivan D. "Joe" Huddle of Oakley; two sons, John H. Huddle of Fort Campbell, Ky. and Glen B. Huddle of Oakley; mother Mary Alice Day of Richmond, Va.; four brothers, Kerwin Day of Smyrna, Ga., Eugene Day of Colonial Heights, Va., Paul Day of Richmond, Va. and George Day of Hopewell, Va.; one sister, Mary Kathryn Taylor of Ashland, Va. and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father John S. Day and one brother, David Day.

She was born Oct. 29, 1943 in Omaha, Neb. to John S. and Mary Alice (Kerwin) Day.

She lived in Oakley since 1986, coming to the community from Cherry County, Neb.

She married Ivan D. "Joe" Huddle on May 19, 1964 in Fort Lee, Va.

She was a certified nurse's aid, working more than 10 years at Oakley Manor. She was a member of St. Joseph's Church in Oakley and a Bronze Life Master Certificate in bridge from the ACBL.

Memorials are suggested to the American Cancer Society or St. Joseph's Church.

Fairview residents return from trip

Lula Thielor

- Fairview Estates

Pete and Beverly Petersen returned from home last Friday after being gone about three weeks. They went to Long Beach, Calif. where their daughter and husband, Debbie and Patrick Wagner live. Debbie accompanied them on a five-day cruise from Long Beach to Catalina Island. They were back in Long Beach for Debbie and Patrick to celebrate their wedding anniversary. They had a great time while gone but are glad to be back home.

Valentine's Day was a fun day here at Fairview. Probably every one received some Valentines but the ladies here were very lucky. One of the gentlemen residents gave each woman a rose for a Valentine and one man gave each one a red candy heart. We had a special dessert at our noon meal. Lucile Long was the lucky winner in a guessing contest. Thanks to everyone who helped make it a special day.

Pastor Mike Pinkelman of the Brewster Community Church, his wife and a few members came Sunday afternoon to hold a church service here at Fairview. Several residents attended for a time of singing hymns and heard the good messages from Pastor Mike. They plan to come again next Sunday at 3 p.m. We hope a good-sized group will attend.

Dwight Dillinger visited his brother Troy and wife Olive last Saturday afternoon. On Sunday Doris and Allen Quenzer of Brewster visited the Dillingers.

Elaine Kehlbeck and Roxie Neitzel and children of Bird City visited Irene Kehlbeck last Friday.

Mary Withers of Rexford was a dinner guest of her mother, Eileen Dible last Friday.

Overnight guests of Peter Morrison Saturday were his son John and Judy Morrison from near Chicago. Overnight guests of Freda Thieler last Wednesday were Marlene and Bud Murphy from Cheyenne, Wyo.

Sally Eberle and her two daughters were dinner guests of Fairview Estates Monday noon.

Several residents have been on the sick list lately and some are still in the hospital but we hope they will all be back and feeling good soon.

'Medicine management' program at Senior Center

Senior News

Thursday, March 3 at 11:40 a.m., Kathy Ryan from the Thomas County Health Department will present a program on "Medicine Management" at the Senior Progress Center, 165 Fike Park.

Come and listen to this informative program. Congratulations to Willie and Mary Engelhardt, the lucky King and Queen for this year's Valentine's Day party.

There are plenty of other activities scheduled at the center for the week of Feb. 28-March 4, including popcorn by Carolyn on Monday and "Famous sayings" at 11:45 a.m.

Tuesday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. and it's also Peanut Butter Lovers Day. Wednesday is Sock Day — plaid, stripes, bright colors or unusual, roll up your pant legs and show them off. Exercise is at 9:30 a.m. Thursday and a blood pressure check will be at 10:30 a.m. The "Medicine Management" program will be at 11:40 a.m. Friday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. and it's both "Hello" Day and Denim Day.

Everyone over 60 is welcome to eat lunch at the center. Donna Schielke, director, says no special invitation is needed to join in the lunchtime fellowship and all are welcome. Those under 60 are welcome to eat at the center also. She did remind everyone that a reservation is needed by noon the previous day. The menu for the next week includes: Monday - lasagna, spinach salad, pineapple tidbits, garlic bread, pudding cup. Tuesday - chili, carrot/raisin salad, fruit mix/bananas, crackers, cinnamon roll. Wednesday - turkey, sweet potato casserole, green beans, roll, cranberry apple salad. Thursday - meatloaf with zesty topping, scalloped potatoes, Italian blend veggies, bread, rosy pears. Friday - baked fish, rice pilaf, asparagus, bread, four fruit compote.

The building is also available for rental for events. For information on lunch reservations, call 460-2901.
