Deaths

Katherine Lines

Katherine Lines, 93, of Quinter, died Sunday, March 6, 2005 at Gove County Medical Center Long Term Care in Quinter.

Mrs. Lines was born Sept. 19, 1911 on the family farm near Collyer to Henry and Anna (Unrein) Ziegler. She attended rural Trego County schools.

On Oct. 6, 1956 she married Harry Lines, Jr. in Collyer.

She was a housewife and homemaker and worked as a nurse's aide for 36 years at Gove County Medical Center in Quinter, retiring in 1981.

Mrs. Lines was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church and Altar Society in Collyer.

Mrs. Lines is survived by her husband, Harry Lines, Jr. of Quinter; one daughter, Virginia Lines of Colby; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three brothers, George, Joseph and Martin Zielger; four sisters, Frances Hecker, Mary Deatrich; Lou Yanda and Ann Dinkel and one son, Remigus Hecker.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Michael Catholic Church in Collyer with Father Basil Torrez officiating. Burial will be at Baker Township Cemetery in Quinter.

Visitation will be from 4-7 p.m. Thursday at Schmitt Funeral Home in Quinter.

A wake and rosary service will be at 7 p.m. Thursday at Schmitt Funeral Home in Quinter.

Memorials are suggested to Gove County Health Care Endowment or Gove County Medical Center Long Term Care and can be sent in care of Schmitt Funeral Home, 901 S. Main St., Quinter, Kan. 67752.

Eva D. Deckman

Eva D. Deckman, 104, of Colby, died Wednesday, Feb. 16, 2005 in Colby.

Eva was born Eva Della Roberts on Jan. 5, 1901 in Palco, the daughter of Max and Melanie Roberts. She was the oldest of fourteen children.

She married C.J. "Tex" Deckman on June 22, 1920 at Palco and they had four children: Joseph, Mary, Leland and Duane. She had three grandsons from Duane and his wife Justina: Joseph, Ronald and Gerald.

Eva and C.J. lived in Hays until 1926. It was then that they moved to Wallace County where they farmed and ranched until 1961. Eva was a homemaker. She lived in Sharon Springs until July 1996, when she moved to Lantern Park Manor in Colby, where she lived the rest of her life.

She was a Catholic and belonged to the Altar Society and Red Hat Club.

Mrs. Deckman is survived by two sisters: Delphine Tucker of Palco and Elaine Brin of Hays; three grandsons: Joseph Deckman of Hays, Ronald Deckman of Sharon of Chancey and Isabel Finch in Garden City for a day of visiting.

How romantic it must be to celebrate a wedding anniversary on an island. Danny and Ellen Lewallen did just that.

Ellen's brother and his wife, John and Denise New, accompanied them to Hawaii where they spent 10 days on the island of Kauai. While they were away Danny's parents, Jack and Edith Lewallen of Buena Vista, Colo. house sat and kept Ellen's menagerie fed and entertained. Verla Moser filled in for Ellen at the post office.

Once every five years, on Memorial Day weekend, the city of Winona comes alive. Plans are progressing to make the 2005 all-school reunion fun and exciting. President Harv Kahle chaired a committee meeting last week and the fruition of ideas submitted started work in progress. The planning committee consisted of vice president Michele Werth; secretary-treasurer Debbie Potter; Tracee Mackley; Sandi Margheim, Pat Koster and LaVonne Baxter. The next meeting will be March 22. Anyone is welcome and volunteers will be appreciated.

Fairview residents attend services

Several residents attended the church service held here at Fairview on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 27 with Lonnie Selby from the Brewster Community Church. Reading Bible verses, singing hymns and hearing the messages which Mr. Selby shared with us filled the time for an enjoyable hour.

Thank you, Lonnie for spending your time with us.

On Monday, Feb. 28, Karen Hodson, Irene Kehlbeck and Carol Haselhorst attended the funeral of Russell Childers in Bird City. Russell had lived here at Fairview for about two years and he will be missed by all of us.

Welcome back to Tillie Depperschmidt and Pete Morrison who returned home this week after spending some time in the hospital. We wish them a speedy recovery.
