Colby Community College Trojan Heather Ebert took a healthy swing during her team's match-up against the Garden City Community College Broncbusters Wednesday at the Colby College diamond.

Nine-run rally not quite enough

The Colby Community College softball Lady Trojans fought back from a big deficit in game two but still came away from Wednesday's region doubleheader against Garden City with two losses.

In game one Heather and Jere Ebert each had two hits, but those were the only hits for the entire team, as Garden City one 2-0.

Game two showed the spirit that the Lady Trojans have. Down 10-0 in the fourth, the Lady Trojans scored nine runs to pull close. With two outs and the tying run on second base in the bottom of the seventh, the Lady Broncbusters managed to get out of a jam and take home a 13-11 decision.

Molly Langerak, Samantha Wolf

and Heather Ebert each went 3 for 5 in game two. Shanae Calkins and Sheena Hawks both drove in two runs.

The Lady Trojans (1-9, 6-21) face Cloud County on Friday at 3 p.m. at the college diamond.

Then the next outing will be the Colby Classic on Saturday and Sunday.

Hoxie group to invade Colby Bowl for fund raiser

HOXIE — A fund raising event is scheduled for next month to help generate money for the Hoxie Big Brother Big Sister's program.

"Our Bowl for Kids' Sake will be held on April 2, at the Colby Bowl. The event is Hoxie's Big Brother Big Sister's biggest fund raiser and the money that is raised stays in Sheridan County to benefit our program," said program executive director Mandi Mollendor.

This is the Hoxie Big Brother Big Sister's third annual bowling event. Of three sessions of bowling, the first will begin at 1 p.m.

Those participating will enjoy free pizza and door prizes. Participating
