'Black-light artist' coming to Rexford

Here's an upcoming event that you will want to put on your calendar! July 14-17 Jerry Beltz will hold evangelistic services at the Rexford church.

He is a black-light artist and gives a beautiful down-to-earth message during the painting of a different original picture each night. Beltz is from Omaha, Neb. now, but was originally from Arnold, Neb., the same place where Pastor Purcell was raised. These services will start at 7:30 p.m. Plan to attend and bring a friend.

Ben and Kelsey (Spreser) Rhodes are home for the summer from Frontier College of the Bible in LaGrange, Wyo. While they are in Rexford, they have started a summer youth program for young people in grades 6-12, beginning each Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. During that same time frame, there is an adult prayer meeting at the church.

Evelyn and Mike Johnson and Juan Lopez representing the Wesleyan Church in Colby, went to Lampe, Mo. recently. They volunteered a week of their time at a boy's ranch, Lives Under Construction. Between the three of them, they stained a building, worked on some

The ranch is home for 19 boys between the age of 9 and 18 years. The directors are Ken and Shela Ortman.

Some of the full-time workers at the ranch are John and Nancy Lueke, who used to be Rexford residents and are friends of Evelyn and Mike.

Social Hour Club was held this week at the Barn with Vesta Roth as hostess. Others present were Clea Moeder, Deb Stepper, Deborah Gamboa, Hulda Wark, Grace Cheney, Fran Leach, Ruth Luna, Jean Hawkins and Sondra Barnett. Deborah's granddaughter, Annyssa Jackson from Liberal came as a guest.

Bingo winners were Grace, Fran, Ruth, and Jean. The hostess prize went to Sondra.

Some residents take trips around the countryside on nice days.

Some play cards or other games to enjoy the summer days, visit with each other or rest in their apartments. It is a leisure life we have here.

Mary B. Grady and Helen

Donelan attended the benefits for the hospital at the all-day bridge meeting held at the Country Club on Friday. There was a good crowd of people there.

Most everyone was present for the Father's Day dinner and each father received a gift. Some went later to visit with the children and other family members.

Dinner guests of Erik and Jean Erickson on Sunday were their daughter Sharon Lohoefer and Joy Erickson.

Pastor Mike Pinkelman from Brewster held the church service Sunday afternoon in the dining room with a small crowd attending. Mrs. Risler played the piano for the hymn singing. They attended the open house for Pastor Fran and Joan Harwerth afterwards.
