Murray gets top honors as wrestler at Nebraska

Brown walk-on success

Colby High grad Zach Brown is one of those "walk-on" success stories.

Zach Brown

While attending Colby High School, where he graduated in 2001, Brown didn't go out for track—that is, until his senior year. And what a showing for a latecomer to the sport winning state in the 400m.

Brown then went to Garden City Community College where he played football for two years.

He then transferred to Fort Hays State University where he a walk on to the track program in January 2004.

At Hays he qualified for the Outdoor Nationals in May 2004 in the 400m dash. He followed that up by qualifying for Indoor Nationals in March 2005, where he finished 12th in the 200m dash with a time of 21.79 and then placed 18th in the 400m dash with a clocking of 48.88.

Additionally, he qualified for Outdoor Nationals in May 2005 finishing 9th in the 4X100 relay, 11th in the 200m dash with a time of 21.29 and 6th in the 400m dash at 47.02.

Brown also posted a new personal best time in the 400m and new Fort Hays State University record in the 400m (the old mark was 41.20).

As a result, anyone placing in the top eight at nationals achieves All-American honors.

Brown was also named Co-Ath-

Zach Brown in action at the Outdoor Nationals in Texas.

lete of the Week in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Outdoor 2005, and named Outstanding Freshman Athlete RMAC Outdoor in 2004.

Matt Murray

University of Nebraska wrestler Matt Murray of Colby, was honored recently as a member of the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American University Division Men's At-Large Team.

Murray, named a third team academic All-American, picked up his second career Academic All-America honor after being named to the University Division Men's At-Large second team last year.

Murray, a senior, has a 3.796 GPA as a mathematics major. He was one of only two wrestlers honored on the Men's At-Large Team, and one of only five Big 12 athletes on the team.

With his selection to the Academic All-American University Division Men's At-Large Team, Murray earns the fourth such honor for Nebraska University and becomes the first Husker wrestler to earn the honor twice.

Along with his academic honors, Murray qualified for his second straight trip to the NCAA Championships at 141 pounds for Nebraska in 2005. In his first trip in 2004, he finished second at 141. Murray finished his career with a 62-21 record in three years of varsity wrestling for Nebraska.

The CoSIDA Academic All-America program honors 816 male and female student-athletes annually who have succeeded at the highest level on the playing field and in the classroom. Individuals are selected through voting by CoSIDA, a 2,000-member organization consisting of spots public relations professionals for colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.20 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standing at his/her current institution, and be nominated by their sports information director.

K-18 Two adds victories to its early season action

Colby 2K-18 hosted Goodland in a K-18 league game last Monday with Goodland coming out on top 13-7, but the final score didn't show how close the game was.

Goodland jumped out with two runs in the top of the 1st, but Colby answered back with two runs in the bottom of the inning. Kirt Dugger walked and Brandon Rasmussen drove him in with a double. Brandon Gordon followed with a single, and then Ethan Stickel drove in Rasmussen with a double. Neither team scored in the 2nd, but then Colby got two more on the board in the bottom of the 3rd. Preston Krzycki and Dugger both got aboard via walks, and stole their way around and both scored on passed balls. Colby held the 4-2 lead until the 5th inning when Goodland was able to score four runs. Colby answered back with one run in the bottom of the 5th to make the score 6-5, Goodland.

Gordon scored in the bottom of the 6th to tie the game up going into the last inning. That's when the wheels came off for Colby, with some untimely walks, a couple good hits, and a couple of errors. When the dust cleared, Goodland had pushed 7 runs across in the top of the 7th to take a 13-6 lead. Colby only managed to get one more run in their last at bat to make the final score 13-7. Kryzcki started on the mound for Colby and made it into the 5th inning when Rasmussen took over and finished the game out. The second game was limited to just one inning because of time. Colby came out on top 5-3 with Garrett Rogers pitching. Scoring for Colby were Dagan Wright, Trenton Jones, Ethan Stickel, Brandon Gordon and Jordan Voss.

At St. Francis

Colby 2 hit the road last Thursday and played in St. Francis. It was a successful road trip as Colby came out on top, 13-3 in a five inning game. Going the distance on the mound was Brandon Rasmussen. He scattered 6 hits, allowed no walks, and struck out seven. Rasmussen also led the way at the plate by scoring all 4 times he batted.

Kirt Dugger hit a ground rule double and scored 3 runs. Preston Krzycki, Brandon Gordon, and Chaz Winger rounded out the scoring by getting 2 runs apiece. Colby scored 2 runs in the top of the first, getting on top early. St. Francis got one run back in the bottom of the inning before Colby exploded for 5 more runs in the 2nd. The young Colby team added 2 more in the 3rd and 4 more runs in the 4th to finish their scoring.

The second game saw more of the same, with Colby taking a 11-2 victory in four innings. Pitching for Colby was Dugger as he allowed only 2 hits, 3 walks, and had 5 strikeouts. Colby jumped on the St. Francis pitchers early again scoring 5 runs and sending 11 batters to the plate in the first inning. St. Francis had trouble the entire game finding the strike zone as they gave up 11 walks and hit a batter.

Leading the scoring for Colby was Dugger who scored three times. Ethan Stickel, Winger, and Jordan Voss each scored twice, and Dagan Wright scored a run.

Also playing but not scoring were: Jacob Hutfler, Trenton Jones, Garrett Rogers, and Spencer Holm.
