June.

Summer arrived at 1:46 a.m. Tuesday. Soon after her arrival a rain shower erupted leaving .20 of an inch in the city. Another brief mid-morning shower left .10 of an inch. Mollie Lamb told me they had just a little over an inch in Russell Springs. John Lamb had an inch and a quarter.

Harv Kahle's gauge showed .75 and he said Max Krieh reported an inch on the county line.

Harv Kahle hosted Father's Day dinner for Roscoe Kahle, Jeff and Jenna Kahle of Ransom and Kerry and Michele Kahle of Kanorado. Clarence and Patsy Kahle called in the afternoon.

dolences to Rodney Baird may do so by sending them to: Rodney Baird, 2457 Wilark Dr. NW, Salem, Ore. 97304. We join with others in offering our condolences to this family.

The wheat harvest is looking more promising than it seemed a few weeks ago and it is starting to get underway at a pretty rapid pace. We have had some very beneficial showers in the past few weeks and it not only revives the plants and yards, but also the spirits of those who have felt the withering heat and drought.
