Rexford area ready to plant wheat

We are so thankful for the rain we have received. It should help the farmers a good deal with the time to plant wheat coming soon.

Several attended the open house at Fairview Estates on Sunday, Aug. 21. Those from here that went to the open house were Fran Leach, Grace Cheney, Vesta Roth, Bert Dible, Jean Hawkins and Deb Stepper.

Barnswallows last week were Lawrence Horinek, Darlene Robben, Grace Cheney, Fran Leach, Mary Ann and Lawrence Juenemann, Betty and Rex Carswell, Deb Stepper, Jean Hawkins, Dick and Eunice Sanford.

Koffee Klatch attendees on Friday were Vesta Roth, Grace Cheney, Hulda Wark, Berneda Zoberst, Velma Barnett, Margaret AraSmith, Delores Dible, Darla Dible, Eunice Sanford, Deb Stepper, Freda Ketchum, and Sondra Barnett. Grace brought a large delicious cantaloupe out of her garden to share and Berneda brought tomatoes to give away.

Velma Barnett was a noon guest at the home of Sondra Barnett on Friday. After lunch, they went to Colby to meet Bryan and Lori Barnett, who were on the way to Denver to put the two older boys on a plane to Washington. Their little boys, Elijah and Joshua returned to Rexford for the day with Sondra. Late that night, Bryan and Lori picked up their children on their way back home to Tyrone, Okla.

Other weekend guests at the home of Sondra Barnett were Kevin and Shalom Kruse, Gabriel, Kaleb and Trinity. This was the first road trip for little Trinity, now one month

There's a lovely new red quilt in the frame at the barn that belongs to Berneda Zoberst. Grace Cheney and Deb Stepper are quite faithful about working on the project. Several others help out from time to time.

Royal Neighbors met Friday at the home of Jean Hawkins. Other members attending were Betty Carswell, Fran Leach, Darlene Robben, Deb Stepper, and Grace Cheney. They enjoyed a good time of visiting after the meeting. Visitors at home of Jean Hawkins on Saturday were her aunt and nephew, Marie Adams from Colby and Jerry Adams from Hutchinson.

Recently a certain Rexford resident was looking for a special item lost in the ditch between Rexford and the nine-mile corner.

Although his lost item didn't turn up, he did find a "little black book" that can be claimed if identified by the phone numbers within! Please call Sondra Barnett to claim the book.

Many boxes of delicious peaches, fresh from Colorado, were delivered to the Barn for pick-up by those who had ordered them a few weeks ago.

Doris Jean Oliver spent several days at her cabin in the mountains near Pike Forest and then went to Canyon City to visit some friends before returning to Rexford.

The Rexford High School graduating class of 1965 will gather for a 40-year class reunion over Labor Day weekend in Rexford. Registration will begin Saturday at 9 a.m. at the Rexford Hotel. A reception will be held from 10:30 a.m. to noon at the Shepherd's Staff main hall (Old Stepper Building). The class welcomes former teachers, parents of classmates and friends in the community to come by and say hello.

Louise and Jerry Latimer, Wichita spent several days at the home of her sister, Nancy and Jay Dahl. Jerry spoke at the Rexford Church on Sunday morning.

There was a fellowship dinner after the morning worship service, which also served as a farewell for Fran Leach, who will be leaving this week.

Scoop on the School: The Shepherd Staff was the location for the teacher's, faculty and staff in-service training on Monday for the Golden Plains Schools. There are 21 teachers, plus paraprofessionals in the district. Friday afternoon there was a volleyball scrimmage at the high school to kick off the season.

On Saturday, the girls took part in the Healy Invitational tournament and took third place.
