In choosing Horlacher Jewelers, it was noted that the store has been in Colby since 1927 and the owners travel to Belgium yearly to select diamonds for their customers. In addition, the store was congratulated for its sponsorship of Gold and Silver Achievement Awards for the local 4-H group during the last 50 years. The store was also honored for its community efforts in supporting local women's bowling teams, after-prom parties and graduation projects. The other Colby business recog-
