JAY KELLEY/Colby Free Press

Brewster High School Bulldogs Branson Gilley (10) and Andrew Starns (7) ran down a Weskan player during their recent matchup. Brewster lost 78-50 to Weskan. The Bulldogs play at Cheylin/Bird City on the road Thursday. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Lady Eagles win substate meet, headed to state in Wamego on Saturday

The Colby High School Lady Eagle cross country team qualified for the state meet after winning the Buhler Regional Meet on Saturday. The girls will head to Wamego on Friday for the state meet after placing third at substate.

Head coach Bob Mannebach was pleased with their performance. "Each girl did their part which enabled the entire team to qualify for state," he said. "We had some great individual performances by these young ladies."

Jessica Stephens was the individual regional champion and it was the fifth year the girls team qualified for state, Mannebach said.

He added the boys had a "good run" but were unable to qualify for state. Mannebach said the competition at the meet was "outstanding."

of the coaches' booth during Sunday's game against the Saints. The representative, team director of security Dan Linza, had been trying to bring a cell phone to offensive coordinator Steve Fairchild so Martz could talk to him from his home.

Martz has long been at odds with Zygmunt and general manager Charlie Army.

Coach has management issues

ST. LOUIS — A day after announcing he'd miss the rest of the season with a heart infection, St. Louis Rams coach Mike Martz harshly criticized team management and said he didn't know if he could coexist with the team's president of football operations.

Jay Zygmunt, the team's second-highest ranking official, stopped a representative for Martz at the door

'Pick-em' winners announced

The winners from the fifth week of the Colby Free Press Pig Skin Pick-em contest have been announced.

Lynn Stover of Colby was the only one to get 10 out of 10 games correctly this week. He will receive $15 in script to be used at participating sponsors. Ten people guessed 9 out of 9 games correctly. Jay Barnett, Loren Jacobs, Lois Unger, Curtis Carmen, Kevan Taylor, Joel Powell, Don Bixenman, David Arnberger and Jack Elliott all of Colby and Dennis Gfeller of Winona. In the tiebreaker, everyone picked Texas winning over Texas Tech except for Dennis. Jay wins 2nd place, $10 in script, by guessing Texas over Texas Tech 38-14, off by 17 points. Loren, Lois and Curtis all was off by 21 points, making it a 3 way tie for 3rd. Curtis Carmen wins the 3rd place spot, $5 in script, by getting his name drawn out of a hat for the tiebreaker.

Twelve people guessed 8 out of 10 correctly. Steve Molstad, Kathy Elliott, Garrett Zwegardt, Tracy Rogers, Dale Quast, Ike Donn, Alva Horn, Amanda McIlnay all of Colby, Eric Rucker, Winona, Bill Funk, Oakley, Derek Spresser, Hoxie and Don Dawes of Goodland.

Five guessed 7 out of the 10 games. Duskin Siruta, Mitchell Tuma, Wilburn Holloway and Dan Bixenman all of Colby and Aaron Rucker of Winona.

Deke Elliott of Colby guessed 6 out of 10. J.C. Carter and Ed Geihlsler both of Colby got 5 out of the 10 correct.
