Winonans visit family in the Springs

Jean Lowe

• Winona Correspondent

Mary Wright and Donnie Wright of Russell Springs and Randy and Paulina Huffman of Oakley went to Colorado Springs, Colo., Saturday to visit Hazel Wright.

They also visited with Hazel's daughter, Nila Bader, and her daughter, Cindy, and Hazel's sister-in-law, Doris Wright.

Hazel is in rehabilitation recovering from a broken arm. She asked about her Logan County friends and would enjoy hearing from them. Her address is Sunnyrest Health Care Center Sunny Vista, 2400 E. Cache La Poudre St., Colorado Springs, Colo., 80909. Her room is #203.

Those from Winona who attended the Calvary Echoes concert at the Oakley U.M. Church Sunday were Steve and Dianne Schertz, Norma Lee Plummer and grandson, Verlin, LaVonne Baxter, Ruth Smith and Jean Lowe.

Big Blue Bash #3 livened up the group of ladies at the chamber building Tuesday afternoon. R.S.V.P. coordinator Laura Withington of Colby had games, prizes and refreshments for Louise Smith, Lucille Bruns, Donita Goyen, LaVonne Baxter, Dianne Kvasnicka, Lois Starns, Juanita Repshire, Patsy Kahle, Mabel Berndt, Kris Furchis and Marge Ausmus.

The long-range planning committee of the Western Plains Arts Association met at the Prairie Skillet in Winona Saturday.

Past reports were reviewed and new goals and objectives were discussed.

Those attending were Cecil Pearce of Wallace, Bill and Wilma Mai of Sharon Springs, Joan Albers of Colby and Jean Lowe of Winona. Fifteen Son Shine Kids appreciated snacks provided by LaVonne Baxter. Annie Palmer brought peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, doughnuts and ice cream for 12 this week.

Saturday, Nov. 12 is bonanza day for Winona moms. They can rouse the family out of bed and be pampered by the Lions Club members at a pancake feed with all the trimmings at the Winona U.M. Church from 6 to 10 a.m.

Never mind preparing lunch. Just head on down to the Chamber Building where the ladies' ham and beans, cole slaw and pie will get the palates salivating. Then perhaps dad will provide dinner after the first day of successful pheasant hunting.

Center holding 'Sweat Shirt Day' on Monday

Senior Center

Thursday, Nov. 10 will be "Sweat Shirt Day" at the Senior Progress Center, 165 Fike Park. Pick out one of your special sweat shirts and wear it this day.

There are plenty of other activities scheduled at the center for the week of Nov. 7-11, including a paint class with Fritz Ostmeyer at 9 a.m. Tuesday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. and there will be a Senior Progress Center board meeting at 1 p.m. At 11:30 a.m. Wednesday there will be a Kansas State University nutrition program with Karen Jones. Exercise will be at 9:30 a.m. Thursday and don't forget it's Sweat Shirt Day.

Friday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. It's also Veteran's Day and veterans will be honored. It's also Denim Friday.

The Thomas County Nutrition Center in Colby wishes to invite those 60 and older and their guests to attend daily luncheons in Colby Monday through Friday.

Reservations may be made by calling (785) 460-2901 the day before.

Home delivery is also available for those unable to attend due to social or physical disabilities. We also invite those working who would like to pick up a meal.

Those meals are available at noon to be picked up. For individuals 60 and over a contribution of $2.50 per meal is requested. We also invite those under 60 years of age to attend or pick up a meal at a cost of $4.50 per meal.

The menu for the next week includes: Monday - salmon patties with sauce, green bean casserole, buttered potatoes, bread, peach cup. Tuesday - lasagna, broccoli salad, banana half, garlic bread, pudding cup. Wednesday - oven fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, Jello with apricots, bread, brownies. Thursday - ham and beans, five cup salad, cornbread, cook's choice complement. Friday - ground beef Stroganoff, spinach salad, cook's choice fruit, noodles, apple crisp.

The building is also available for rental for events. For information or lunch reservations, call 460-2901.

The Thomas County Public Van is owned by the county but is scheduled and dispatched by the Senior Progress Center.

The van is not a taxi service. It will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis.

It must be scheduled at least 24 hours in advance of its use and be ready at least 30 minutes in advance of appointment. Sometimes there are four to six calls per time frame.

Calls for the van need to be made between the hours of 8 a.m. and noon, Monday through Friday.

Shakespeare Club talks about plans

Colby Shakespeare Club met at the Colby Community College Student Union on Friday, Oct. 28. The meeting was called to order by the president, Joyce Hansen. Club members repeated the flag salute and club collect. In unfinished business, the president reminded members of their obligations for the Prairie Museum Open House on Sunday, Nov. 20. Members will be making cookies, serving refreshments and helping to make ornaments.

The next meeting will be with Janice McCart at 1818 Harvey with Jane Brady as co-hostess. Members are to bring jams and jellies for the Christmas baskets. Jeanne Thyfault read the book "No Matter What," the book chosen by Gov. Kathleen Sebelius to be read during the week designated as Read to Preschoolers Week.

The program chair, Jeanne Thyfault, introduced Pat Erickson, director of Colby Community College Physical Therapy program. Pat talked about the importance of exercise in our lives. She lead the group in series of exercises designed to help develop correct breathing and then advanced to some passive exercises to help develop correct posture as well as daily activity.

Corrections

A story which ran in the Friday, Oct. 28, edition of the Colby Free Press incorrectly listed the number of signatures on file with the Logan County Clerk's office regarding an upcoming election about Sunday alcohol sales.

As of the end of last week, 200 signatures were on file.

The Colby Free Press wants to maintain an accurate record of our town. Please report any error or lack of clarity in a news story to us at 462-3963.
