Thanksgiving celebrated with family and friends

Jean Lowe

Winona Correspondent

Travis Latham, Jamie Shaw, Darris Lewallen and Brooklyn and Kalin Lewallen of Hays.

LaVonne Baxter's Thanksgiving weekend guests were Karen Baxter and Linda, and John Dinkel of Garden City.

Kenneth and Louise Smith spent Thanksgiving Day with Luella Baalman and family near Menlo.

Ray and Juanita Repshire joined their family at the home of Gary and Raelene Eaton and Monique in Oakley Thanksgiving Day. Other guests were Robert and Lorette Eaton of Salina, Bill and Viola Repshire and Lester Repshire of Oakley.

Clarence and Pat Kahle went to Hoxie Thanksgiving Day. They were guests of John and Kim Bruggeman. Others present were ReChelle Kennedy and family of Hoxie, Jason Horinek and family of Cameron, Mo. and Kurt and Pam Kahle and Grant of Monument.

Thanksgiving is a time for families who live in close proximity of one another and share their every day lives to stop and reflect on their blessings. It's one day to set aside trivialities and discover the rapport of one another.

That is the way Lloyd and Ruth Theimer and Everett and Cindy Theimer and family counted their blessings as they enjoyed eating out together.

Joyce Bartell, Dalene Bartell, Kyle Bartell and Glen Kemp enjoyed dining out.

John Dean and Joy Rogge hosted a family gathering throughout Thanksgiving weekend. Relatives from a distance were Van and Teresa Rogge and John and Eric Rogge of Kingfisher, Okla., Michelle Barker of Sherman, Texas, Grand and Heather Garrison and Orin of Colorado Springs, Colo., Jeri Gibbs and Megan of Sharon Springs, Kerr Barnett and family of Oakley, Kevin Boyd, Jim and Terry Boyd, and Dan and Robin Rogge and family.

Word has been received of the death of Ada Rogge, formerly of Russell Springs. She had broken her hip and was in a Denver hospital. She died Sunday at age 94. Condolences are extended to all of the family.

Alicia Fulton and Trenton and Darrin Fuldson were home for the holiday with their parents, Marshall and Tammy Fulton.

Ada Frances Rogge

Ada Frances Rogge, native of Russell Springs, Kansas died on November 27, 2005 in Littleton, Colorado. She was born on March 25, 1911 on a farm south of Russell Springs to parents, Dean and Maggie Veal. Ada attended the Hopper country school and graduated from Russell Springs High School. She enjoyed the outdoor activities of farm life, including riding horses across the prairie, often in the company of her brother, Ira; the rural social life, usually including relatives and other farm families; and even the hard work of a family farm.

Ada married Alfred Rogge on September 24, 1929 and they settled in Russell Springs where they raised a family of five children: Don, Bill, Karleen, Nevada and Myra. Family was always first priority to Mrs. Rogge. She taught in a country school, grades one through eight in Logan County; served several years in the office of the County Treasurer; and served for 13 years as Clerk of the District Court. She retired from Wheatland Electric in Scott City, Kansas. She was an active member of St. Francis Chapel and served in various capacities through the years. She continued a keen interest in county political happenings.

Ada had made her home in Colby, Kansas for the past few years, where she enjoyed the company of many new friends.

Ada maintained a physical vigor and personal independence, even at 94.

She is preceded in death by husband, Alfred Rogge; daughter, Karleen Cook; son, Bill Rogge; parents, Dean and Maggie Veal; sisters Helen Heron and husband Bill Heron; and Margaret Miller and husband Ward Miller.

Survivors cherishing her memory include her son and daughter in law, Don and Verena Rogge, Littleton, Colorado; daughter and son in law, Myra and Chuck Wilson, Norman, Oklahoma; daughter Nevada Farris, Houston, Texas; brother and sister in law, Ira and Ruth Veal, Commerce City, Colorado; sister in law, Anna Kelley, Scott City, Kansas; grandchildren and their spouses, Kim and Bill Humenik, Kathy Cook, Gordon Cook, Lance and Susan Rogge, Renee Rogge, Dana Rogge, Adam Wilson, Maggie Wilson, Julia Farris, Mark and Shelly Farris, John Farris, Brian Rogge, Mary Salcido, Melissa Stephens, and Mel and Emma Hermann. Great grandchildren include Tony Humenik, Emily Hill, Amy Cook, Andrea Julian, David Farris, Michael Farris, Daniel Terrell and Shannon Rankin. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Francis Chapel, Russell Springs, Kansas 67755 are suggested, or the charity of your choice.

Memorial service celebrating Ada's life will be held at St. Francis Chapel on Saturday, December 17, 2005 at 11:00 a.m.
