Gladys Mildred Fulton

Gladys Mildred Fulton was born April 21, 1923 in Reading, Kansas and passed from this life on December 27, 2005. She was the youngest of two daughters born to Earl P. & L. Rowena Geyer.

Although born elsewhere, she lived all her youth in Ulysses, Kansas, where her family resided. There she completed grade and high school. Upon graduation, she enrolled at the Venus Beauty Academy in Wichita, Kansas in 1939. She completed her training and became employed in Garden City, Kansas. During that time, she returned to Ulysses periodically. While there she met and dated Vernon (Chuck) Fulton, who was in the livestock business in Grant County.

On November 15, 1941, she married Chuck in Syracuse, Kansas. He was later drafted into the army in June 1942. Gladys traveled to the states where his training exercises were held. Upon his division being ordered to Europe, she returned to the Ulysses area. During Chuck's absence, she also traveled to Oakley, Kansas to help with harvests on the Fulton family farm.

After the war, the couple made their first home in Lamar, Colorado. While in Lamar in 1951, their only son Marshall was born.

In 1956, the Fultons moved to Colby, Kansas where Chuck was employed by Garvey Farms.

Gladys remained a resident of Colby after her husband's death in 1988, but she spent the winter months each year in Surprise, Arizona. As her health failed and she was not able to travel, she resided in her apartment in Colby year around.

In May 2003, Gladys became unable to live alone. Her family secured many wonderful caregivers to stay with her 24 hours a day. She enjoyed and appreciated their company and assistance so much.

She was a talented, caring and loving person, who cherished her family and friends. Her grandchildren and great grandson were her pride and joy. Gladys looked forward to attending her family's school and church functions. She always enjoyed their cards and visits immensely.

Gladys was very active in service organizations and church work. She was past president of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and the Leisure Hour Club, as well as a member of Eastern Star. She was a long time member of the Colby United Methodist Church and served on many of their committees. Gladys also served as secretary on the Thomas County Historical Society Board.

One of Gladys' fondest hobbies, besides caring for her home was flower gardening. Her favorite flowers that occupied a large section of their backyard were her roses. She had a wonderful knowledge of just where, when and how to plant and care for them. This produced beautiful results and they were admired by all who visited their home.

Gladys was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a niece and several in-laws. She is survived by her son, Marshall and daughter-in-law Tammy of Winona, Kansas, her granddaughter Alicia and son Trenton of Olathe, Kansas and her grandson Darrin of Kansas City, Kansas, her sister ValLeda Elliott of Sun City West, Arizona, three nephews and spouses, her wonderful caregivers and many close friends.

Services were held Friday, December 30, 2005 at Harrison Chapel in Colby, Kansas. Rev. James Brackett of Elkhart, Kansas officiated while Mrs. Pat Ziegemeier was the organist and Mr. Don Kready was the soloist. Pallbearers were Pat Mallory, Tim Schippers, Donnie Hughes, Richard Garvey, Art Koster and Don Woofert. Her final resting place was at Beulah Cemetery in Colby, Kansas.
