Forrest E. May

Forrest E. May, 76, of Colby, died Thursday, March 2, 2006 at his home in Colby. Services are pending with Harrison Chapel.

Mr. May was born June 17, 1929 in Colby.

New director named

The Senior Progress Center, 165 Fike Park, has a new director. Tammie Snyder replaces Donna Schielke, who resigned earlier this year. Snyder is originally from Beloit and came to Colby in 1992, after graduating from Pittsburg State University with a degree in social work.

Snyder has three children, Dalton, 12; Kellee, 6, and Wyatt, 2. "I am so happy and excited to have the opportunity to work with the population that I love and will be able to spend extra time with my children that I have missed," Snyder said. "I am looking forward to meeting and working with each and every one of you."

There are plenty of activities scheduled at the center for the week of March 6-10, including an exercise class with Diann Gerstner at 10 a.m. Monday. Income tax filing help will be available from 1-3 p.m. and it's also blue day, wear blue. Tuesday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. and there will be a board meeting at 1 p.m. Exercise class with Diann Gerstner is at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Thursday exercise is at 9:30 a.m. Exercise is at 9:30 a.m. Friday, followed by exercise with Diann Gerstner at 10 a.m. It's also Denim Day.

The Thomas County Nutrition Center in Colby wishes to invite those 60 and older and their guests to attend daily luncheons in Colby Monday through Friday. Reservations may be made by calling (785) 460-2901 the day before. Home delivery is also available for those unable to attend due to social or physical disabilities. Those who

Brewster Bulldogs at substate tourney

The big news of the week are the winning games by the Brewster Bulldog basketball teams. The girls' team won over Wallace County on Friday night to get into the championship game, which they won over Golden Plains. The boys' team won over Weskan on Friday night, then won over Wallace County in the championship game. Both teams advance to the sub-state tournaments this week.

The boys play at Phillipsburg on Thursday night at 6 p.m. against Ness City, while the girls will play against Ransom-Western Plains on Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at Russell.

Sean Bryant arrived on Feb. 3 to visit Duane and Judy Headley for two weeks. He visited with many friends in Brewster and Goodland. Melda Moore and Edith Harrington, Duane's sisters, came on Wednesday evening to have dinner and visit with Sean. On Friday, Feb. 17, Duane, Judy, and Sean drove to Garden City for Duane's shoulder surgery. Sean visited with Lori and Kent Moore, Spencer and Colt, and Barbara Springsteen while in Garden City. On Monday, Feb. 20, Sean left for Georgia. He is doing well after being injured in Iraq in July. He will still be in treatment for 2 to 3 months.

Kersten Trow, Ryan Allen, and Will Allen participated in the Thomas County Spelling Bee on Feb. 22, with Spencer Holm as the alternate. Ryan placed fourth and Will placed fourth, each receiving a medal at the bee, which took place at the Heartland School in Colby. Mrs. Rae Stewart, sixth grade teacher at Brewster USD 314, was the county coordinator.

Keith Raymond, grandson of Cliff and Paula Fox, is in basic training with the Army at Ft. Knox, Ky.

The winner of the quilt that was raffled by the Beta Study Club was Paula Gilbert, teacher at USD 314.

Local cadet makes dean's list

West Point, NY — Cadet Theodore K. Kleinsorge, a 2004 Colby High School graduate, was named to the fall semester dean's list at the U.S. Military Academy. The fall semester runs from August through December.

T. Kleinsorge

To earn this honor, a cadet must maintain a 3.0 average in all courses. Kleinsorge is currently in the top 43 percent of the Class of 2008.

"The mission of the U.S. Military Academy is to educate, train, and inspire the corps of cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of duty, honor, country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the United States Army," a school official said.

The son of Vernon and Judy Kleinsorge of Colby, Theodore is majoring in systems engineering and plans to graduate in 2008. Upon graduation, he will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.
