their worlds were turned upside down. We were all out about two months — and now they say a bad season again.” Nikki’s mother, Virginia McCabe, was also living in the area. She concludes, “Mom’s place, too, was also closed for about six weeks.” The McCabes were former residents of Winona.

Kendal and Sharon Wright, Mary Wright and Donnie Wright attended the funeral for Jerry White in Leoti last week. His surviving widow, Beverly White is a daughter of the late Isabelle (nee Wright) O’Neal.

Debbie Mather met Jason and Trudi Gager and Brookelyn of Olathe in Quinter Thursday. They visited briefly with Lindsey Wright and Caden. Jason returned to Hays where he met friends and attended a wrestling tournament. Trudi and Brookelyn accompanied Debbie to Russell Springs where they were guests until Sunday when they returned to their home in Olathe with Jason. Friday, Debbie, Trudi and Brookelyn called on Jerry and Marietta Wright and Taylor and Courtney Wright who were visiting their grandparents. They also called on David and Judy Gfeller on Friday, and Saturday, they visited with Jill Janson, Skyler and Brianna. They visited with Helen Gates at the manor in Oakley.

Robert Lewallen hosted Sunday dinner honoring Kelly Lewallen’s 18th birthday. Guests were Mark and Pam Lewallen, Lance Lewallen, Lanis Kirk, Shannon Dewey, Hunter and Tanner of Cimarron, Erma Latham and Jael

Nichols.

Friday evening supper guests of Kendal and Sharon Wright were Beverly White of Leoti, Sandra May, Mary Wright, Donnie Wright, and Trudi and Brookelyn Gager of Olathe.

Mr. Doug Spenser filled the pulpit at the Winona U.M. Church Sunday morning. Visitors Alicia Fulton and Trenton received a friendly greeting.

Accolades to Winona and Page City for their attendance at the Vienna Choir Boys concert in Colby Sunday. After two standing ovations they gratified the audience with an awesome rendition of “Amazing Grace.”

Congratulations, Ole, Bravo or Whatever to Drew and Cheryl for winning the “Dancing with the Stars” trophy. Daughter Cynthia was abashed when her mother’s votes got through on her antiquated telephone and she was unable to vote on her high tech electronics.

Congratulations to Wyatt and Lindy Kvasnicka, proud parents of baby Koda James, and proud grandparents Rich and Dianne Kvasnicka and Jeff and Kris Harper, all of Winona.

Remember, I told you the best was yet to come. “Gentlemen Prefer Blondes” will be presented at the Oakley High School Tuesday, March 14 at 7:30 p.m. Get set for an entertaining zany musical, set in the roaring 20s, thanks to W.P.A.A., Kansas Arts Commission and National Endowment for the Arts.

Daughters of Isabella hold meeting

Daughters of Isabella Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle #747 met in the Knights of Columbus room at 7:30 p.m. for the March 2 meeting.

Loretta Zerr called the meeting to order.

The prayer, opening ode and pledge to the flag were done as a group.

Loretta thanked Marje Robben and Joan Albers for the great job they did researching and writing the history of the Colby Daughters of Isabella circle that was started in 1947. Copies were available for the members who wanted to read it.

Three volunteers will call members to remind them of the banquet and breakfast brunch at City Limits for the conference as the meal money needs to be turned in by March 15.

More raffle tickets are available to be sold and will be sold at this Sundays’ coffee and rolls after mass and Queen Mary’s Irish breakfast March 12.

Joan Ziegler and Rosemary Bange put together 170 “Welcome to Colby” bags for the conference.

A get well card will be sent to Jean Mallory who fell this week and is in a Salina hospital.

The obligation was said as a group. The closing ode was sung. The meeting was adjourned.

Louise Dougherty and Rosemary Bange served a delicious green chiffon dessert, crackers and cheese, tea and coffee for fellowship. Rosemary read a very nice meditation prayer she had written.

The April 6 meeting will be a gourmet meal.

The committee will be: Paulette Bieker, Joan Ziegler, Brett Pfeifer and Melissa Crumrine.
