Brewster Bulldogs are 'outstanding'

It's play basketball time in Brewster. The girls and boys have had an outstanding year. The girls finally lost in their second substate game, but the boys went on to win Saturday to continue in Hays this week for State. The girls totals for the year were 22-3, which is nothing to hang your heads about. Girls, you had a wonderful year, and the community congratulates you all. So lets go, Brewster Bulldog boys. We're all cheering for you.

We had a surprise birthday cake for Harold Norton Friday, March 3 at the center. And I think I did surprise him. Harold was 84 years young.

My own: Once you were on the outside, looking in. You were a child whose nose is pressed against the window of a beautiful shop full of toys and candy, with no money to buy. You were like a child on the playground who longs to take part in the game but never gets picked to be on a team.

You were like the foreigner who can't understand the language or traditions of the strange land he is traveling through. How lonely and lost he feels! But now everything has changed. My Son has come for you. Now you belong; you are a part; you are on the inside! Jesus Christ has opened the door to the beautiful shop and has paid the price for your purchases. Jesus Christ has stopped the game and come over to you on the sidelines and has chosen you to be on his team. Jesus Christ has welcomed you into a new land where he is the King. He has taught you the language and the customs and made you a citizen. Now, at last, you are a member of the household of God! Welcome, my child. God. Ephesians 2:11-13.
