Prairie Gem 4-H Club sponsoring egg hunt

The major business decision for the members of the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club was to sponsor the community East Egg Hunt on April 14. This discussion took place at the regular monthly meeting on March 13, 2006.

The meeting opened with the flag salute led by Layton Werth. Avery Schultz led the members in singing the Star Spangled Banner. Thirteen members present answered the roll call of, "How many states have you been in?"

The program for the evening began with a project talk. Kasey Hoyt told the club about her red steer, Hot Tamale. Next on the agenda were the demonstrations. Rose Bear gave a presentation on different stitches that are used on a sewing machine. Her demonstration was entitled, "Different Stitches for Different Times." Whitney Schultz gave a timely demonstration, "Chick it Out." This showed members how to make an Easter chick out of easy to find craft supplies.

For music and other, Audrey Hoyt read a poem, "All About Leprechauns." Layton Werth performed his piano solo, "Quiet River," that he will play at County Club Days.

The meeting ended with Melissa and Ben Baird leading the club in a game of Land and Water. Wyatt Werth started the club in reciting the 4-H pledge. Amy Carpenter supplied the snack that followed the meeting.

The club celebrated Valentine's Day during their Feb. 13 meeting by singing the Barney theme song, "Love You," which was led by Avery Schultz. Rachel Horney read a fun poem entitled "Five Big Valentines."

For the month's roll call, 12 members answered the question, "Who is your favorite musician?" Club leader, Dorothy Bear, reported that Pizza Sales went well. 126 pizzas were sold with eight members and two leaders working with the rest of the counties' clubs to make 700 pizzas. Members signed up for County Club Days performances and project record sheets were handed out.

Ben Baird started the program with his demonstration on how to make a paper swan. Melissa Baird then showed the club how to make bath salt. Stephanie Eicher presented information on the Avian Flu.

Whitney Schultz led the group in reciting the 4-H pledge. The Bear and Knox families served refreshments to end this Valentine's Eve meeting.

Postmaster heads to Washington, D.C.

It was two to three weeks before the cherry blossoms would appear. The weather was typical of cold, windy March in Washington, D.C. Nevertheless, Winona's postmistress, Ellen Lewallen, enjoyed the sights and sounds in the intriguing capitol of our nation while attending a post office leadership conference. Two thousand postmasters from all over the nation attended the conference in Washington, D.C.
