Garden City stops Trojans' streak

Garden City ended the Colby Trojans' game winning streak at seven after a doubleheader played Wednesday in Colby. Colby won game one 3-1. Colby came into the day with a six game win streak but the Trojans faced Aaron Breit from Garden City who was the pitcher of the year last season and twice drafted by the San Diego Padres. For Colby, Adam Skelton, who has taken over as the ace of the staff, threw a complete game and ran his consecutive scoreless innings streak to 21 before allowing a single to right field in the seventh to score the Broncbusters only run. Skelton is now 6-2 on the season with a 1.65 ERA. Garden City only managed five hits off of Skelton with none being for extra bases. The Trojan offense was led by Cory Raczkykowski for the second consecutive day. Raz went 3-3 with two doubles off of Breit who threw 96 mph with his fastball. Garden City won game two 4-3. Game two featured freshman lefthanders from both teams squaring off. Unfortunately for the Trojans Dan April (2-2) was his own worst enemy. April pitched well but five Trojan errors did not help. Two were made by April. April went five innings and allowed two hits and three runs

(one earned) before T.R. Keating took the Trojans into extra innings. Keating pitched well but allowed a Dusty Washburn single off the end of his bat into right field to score Joe Servais for the go-ahead run in the top of the ninth. Adam Morrison for Garden City had a complete game for the win. Jason Chatwood and Cory Raczkykowski each had two hits for Colby. Chatwood had two RBIs. The Trojans finished the game with five hits. The Trojans are now 14-8 in conference and in third place behind Hutchinson and Barton. The Trojans can pull ahead of Barton this weekend as both teams face off 1 p.m. Saturday in Colby.

Lady Trojans at top of conference

Colby dominated Garden City Wednesday winning a doubleheader. In game won, Colby won 12-1 in five innings. Amanda Bell got the win for Colby. She allowed three hits and struck out four. Leading hitter was Heather Ebert. She went 3-4 with a home run and two RBIs. Colby had 11 hits.

Game two, Colby won 6-2. Winning pitcher for Colby was Jere Ebert. In seven innings, she gave up seven hits. Leading hitter for Colby was Molly Langerak. She was 3-3 with a double and two RBIs. As a team, Colby had 10 hits. "We played very well today. We had all parts of the game working today. We hit the ball up and down the lineup. Our pitchers threw really well and our defense was solid," said Colby coach Carl Adams. Colby is 9-1 in the region with six games left. Colby is in a tie for first in the conference with Butler at 8-0. Butler plays April 29 at Colby. Colby is 34-14 and eight more wins will tie the school record for most wins in a season.

Huggins lands recruit

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Jason Bennett, a 7-foot-3 center from Jacksonville, signed a national letter of intent Wednesday to play for Kansas State and new coach Bob Huggins. He chose the Wildcats over Auburn, becoming the first player to join Huggins at Kansas State since he took the job last month. "Jason is going to be the centerpiece of what we build in the future here at Kansas State," Huggins said in a news release. "I fully expect Jason come in and contribute immediately to this program."

Bennett is the tallest player by 2 inches to play at Kansas State, giving the Wildcats a big, intimidating presence they have lacked for many years. But he was also clear in calling Kansas State a stepping stone to the NBA. "I'm probably going to leave after my second year," he said. "It depends if I like college and it's fun and I'm doing good. Then I might stay another two years and get my degree. But if I leave early, I made a pact with my dad that I would earn my degree in the offseason."

Bennett verbally committed to play at Cincinnati last year but decided to follow Huggins to Manhattan, Kan. Huggins remained in contact this year while he was out of coaching and not subject to NCAA restrictions on when college coaches can contact recruits. "I saw what they did with their big man as far as teaching him and helping him gain weight and get stronger," Bennett said during a signing ceremony at his high school. "Coach Huggins has gotten a lot of players to the NBA. I think he can get another one there." Huggins turned the Bearcats into a national power during 16 sometimes-stormy years, but he was out of work after the school refused to extend his four-year contract rollover following his arrest and conviction for drunken driving in 2004. Bennett averaged 12.5 points, 13 rebounds and eight blocks last season and led Arlington Country Day to a second consecutive Class 2A state championship. He was the No. 5-rated high school center in the nation, according to Rivals.com., and a standout on the Miami Tropics AAU team. "I know I have to improve my offense — my jump shot and my moves in the post," Bennett said. "I feel comfortable with where my defense is, but my scoring has to get better." Bennett is the tallest player by 2 inches to play at Kansas State, giving the Wildcats a big, intimidating presence they have lacked for many years. But he was also clear in calling Kansas State a stepping stone to the NBA. "I'm probably going to leave after my second year," he said. "It depends if I like college and it's fun and I'm doing good. Then I might stay another two years and get my degree. But if I leave early, I made a pact with my dad that I would earn my degree in the offseason."

JV Eagles win

Colby High junior varsity softball team defeated Garden City Monday in a doubleheader. Colby won game one 15-0 after four innings. Pitcher Tisha Bieker allowed two hits. Cyndi Rothfuss, Brena Jones, Tara Powell, Lindsey Frahm, Kiri Kendrick at least hit one triple. Jones hit two. Bieker hit three singles. Game two was in Colby's favor 15-1. Rothfuss hit a single and a double. Jordan Krzycki hit two singles and Jones had a single.
