● Brewster Correspondent

Mayer, and Bill Selby recently spent a week vacationing in Washington, D.C. Rep. Jerry Moran scheduled a tour of the capitol building for them. They also visited other sites of interest, including all the war memorials and the Holocaust Museum.

Brewster's Biggest Losers weighed in at 9,544 pounds. Forty-five Brewster residents have joined nine teams of five to compete in Brewster's Biggest Loser competition. They weighed in at a total of 9,544 pounds. They will compete for four months with prizes going to the individual biggest loser and the team biggest loser. Brewster streets are bustling with walkers, joggers and bicyclists. There are teams of high school students to senior citizens, fat people and skinny people, and the loss is based on percentage, so you don't have to be fat to win. Activities are planned to help keep everyone motivated.

Lawrence and Lila Mayer had the sunrise service at their home Easter morning. It was well attended with 45 present, and the sunrise was beautiful. Had a breakfast brunch after.

I want to thank Joyce Crabtree for doing my weekly new column for me the past six weeks. I'm very grateful for her help. Also want to thank all the volunteers that kept the Senior Center going while I was gone, and I thank this great community that I live in for all the cards and prayers sent to my daughter, Dana Jo and our family. You don't know how much each and everyone of them meant to us. Dana Jo went to Jesus at her home on April 7, 2006. I had spent the last six weeks with her in her home with her husband and two daughters keeping care of her. It's been a very difficult time, but knowing she is in God's arms has made it easier. I thank all of you again, and for all the many donations made in her name. God Bless You All.
