Radio-controlled race cars were zinging by each other Sunday at the Southwind RC Raceway at Southwind Plaza. This was the first race of the Kansas-Colorado 3 Track Series, said Kent

Higerd of Colby. "The 3 Track Series is a touring series of the Southwind RC of Colby, Dirtworks of Burlington and Rat Raceway of Denver," he said.

Lady Trojans struggle through weekend

The hits are becoming harder to find for the Colby Lady Trojans softball team.

Colby was 1-4 during the weekend games in Colby.

Colby's lone win was 6-0 over Cloud County in the first game of a doubleheader.

Amanda Bell helped the cause by throwing a no-hitter for Colby. She struck out six in seven innings. Amber Chipps led Colby going 2-3 at the plate. She hit a double, RBI and scored a run.

Cloud almost returned the favor in game two winning 2-0. Colby only had two hits.

Jere Ebert took the loss for Colby, despite giving up just two hits in seven innings. She also struck out eight.

In the Allen Wolf Memorial

Tournament, Colby lost three games.

Garden City defeated Colby 6-1.

Amy Foster took the loss for Colby. She gave up 10 hits and five earned runs. Leading hitter was Amanda Slate. She was 1-2 with an RBI. Colby had five hits.

Western Nebraska defeated Colby 3-2.

Amanda Bell was the losing pitcher. She gave up three hits and allowed three earned runs in the seven innings. Leading hitter for Colby was Heather Ebert. She was 1-2 with a double and a run scored.

Colby had three hits.

Lamar blanked Colby 4-0.

Losing pitcher was Jere Ebert. She allowed seven hits and two earned runs in seven innings. Amber Chipps was 1-3 at the plate. She had one of Colby's two hits.

"The team has gone into a funk hitting the ball that last few games. When we are getting people on base we aren't getting the hits to drive the runs in," said Colby coach Carl Adams. "Our defense and pitching has been alright."

Colby hosts Garden City today in a region and conference double-header. Butler County plays at Colby Saturday and Otero visits Sunday.

Colby is 36-19.

12 and under tryouts May 6

Boys 12 and under baseball team will have their first tryouts 3:30 p.m. Saturday, May 6, at the baseball complex. For more information call Kevin Cox at 460-7310.

Corder leads JV golf team

Colby High junior varsity golfer Tanner Corder placed second Monday at a meet in Goodland. The meet was postponed from April 18 because of weather.

No team scores were taken during the nine-hole competition. Other Eagles golfers and their scores were Sean Herring, 57; Matt Ryan, 58; Chris Crocker, 69; Brandon Harlow, 69; Nate Horinek, 74 and Stephen Schmidt, 101.

Late score gives JV Eagles a win

It was a seven inning long struggle for the Colby JV girls last Monday, as the Russell Lady Broncos outscored them in the final inning.

Colby had them tied at the bottom of the sixth, but two outs in three at bats didn't stop Russell from scoring four more runs in. Russell held the Lady Eagles scoreless in the seventh for a 11-7, Russell win.

The final game with Colby and Scott City again saw the Lady Eagles struggling with fielding errors and batting. They were able to score on walks and an RBI sac by Tara Powell. Scott City led 5-4.

Scott City then ran away with the batting, racking up seven runs in the third. The Eagles then rallied in the fourth, scoring seven runs, which tied Scott City, 13-13.

Powell stole the winning run home as game time had run out and she was the first batter around the bases. She hit a single, but stole around and ran in to give Colby their win of 14-13.
