

TISHA COX/Colby Free Press

Colby Lady Eagle second baseman Ashley Barnes tried to tag out a Scott City player during their matchup while fielder Ali Leavitt watched Thursday. The Lady Eagles also faced the Lakin Lady Broncs in a game earlier that day.

Redmond, Wark throw shut outs

Double zeroes. That is what the scoreboard looked like after Colby finished with Lakin and Scott City Thursday. Colby shut out both teams. Colby defeated Lakin 15-0 in a game that lasted three innings. Sarah Redmond threw a no-hitter at Lakin. She struck out four and had one walk. “She did a super job,” said Colby coach Jack Elliott.

Four Eagles each had two RBIs. Brenna Jones went 2-2, Cierra Rous went 2-3, Leah Cox was 1-2 and Emily Dougherty was also 1-2 as each player brought in two runs. Ashley Barnes and Logan Wark also had a RBI. In the second game, Colby blanked Scott City 7-0. Strong pitching again proved to be the advantage for Colby. Wark gave up three hits and struck out six to get the win.

Wark was also effective with the bat. She was 2-3 with a triple and a RBI. Cox was 2-3 with a RBI. Barnes hit a double and a RBI and Lauren Cox and Katie Friesen each had a RBI. “It was our best day of the season,” Elliott said. “We had super pitching and had very solid defense. Offensively we were much better. Hit the ball hard all day.” Colby (8-4) plays 4 p.m. Tuesday at Plainville.

Eagles in seventh-inning heaven

Colby had a case of deja vu Thursday. The Eagles scored one run in the bottom of the seventh inning to defeat Lakin in each game of a double-header. In the second game, Colby scored three runs in the sixth inning to tie Lake at 11. Colby had taken a 8-5 lead after its five runs in the third inning. Lakin claimed the lead after its five runs in the fourth inning. Joseph Heier led Colby going 4-5 at the plate. Jason Ackerman had three RBIs in his 2-5 performance. Tyson Plumisto was 2-3. Colby may have scored more if it did not leave 10 runners stranded. Twice, Colby left the bases loaded. Plumisto got the win for Colby. He relieved starter Jeremy Dietz in the first inning. In game two, Colby’s last inning run gave them a 6-5 win. Like the first game, Colby’s two runs in the sixth inning gave them a 5-4 advantage. Lakin scored one run in the seventh to tie the score before Colby got the win. Three Eagles had two hits Trent Powell, Cory Sager and Heath Bieker. Powell, Sager and Brett Wilson each had a RBI. Also like the first game, Colby left 11 runners stranded. Powell got the win for Colby. He started the game and gave up five hits and struck out four in six innings. Dietz got the save. Colby plays 4 p.m. Tuesday vs. Plainville in Colby.

SportsBriefs: Bonds will wait

NEW YORK (AP) — Barry Bonds will have to wait until he passes Hank Aaron before baseball throws a party for him. Major League Baseball is not planning any celebration for Bonds if and when he tops Babe Ruth’s mark of 714 home runs, commissioner Bud Selig said. Bonds has been the subject of steroids speculation for several seasons. The recent book “Game of Shadows” detailed allegations against him, and a federal grand jury is investigating whether he committed perjury when he told another grand jury that he had never knowingly used performance-enhancing drugs. Bonds hit his 711th homer Wednesday. ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Tampa Bay prospect Delmon Young was suspended indefinitely by the International League, a day after throwing a bat that hit a replacement umpire in the chest. The 20-year-old Young, brother of Detroit star Dmitri Young, was ejected in the first inning following a called third strike in the Durham Bulls’ Triple-A game at Pawtucket, R.I. After leaving the batter’s box, Young flipped his bat underhand and it sailed end over end, striking the umpire. The umpire, whose name was not released, did not appear injured and remained in the game. DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — The woman who says she was raped by three members of Duke’s lacrosse team also told police 10 years ago she was raped by three men, filing a 1996 complaint claiming she had been assaulted three years earlier when she was 14. Authorities in nearby Granville County said that none of the men named in the decade-old report were ever charged with sexual assault there, but they didn’t have details why. Relatives told Essence magazine in an online story that the woman declined to pursue the case out of fear for her safety. A phone number for the accuser has been disconnected, and her father said he remembered little about the incident except going with police to a home where he said his daughter was being held “against her will.” SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A noted scientist in the sports nutritional supplement world accused of supplying the Bay Area Laboratory-Cooperative with the performance-enhancing drug known as “the clear” has reached a deal to plead guilty Friday in federal court. A San Francisco federal grand jury indicted Patrick Arnold in November of conspiring with BALCO founder Victor Conte to distribute the once-undetectable substance tetrahydrogestrinone. Since he was charged with three counts of illegally distributing performance-enhancing drugs, Arnold has maintained his innocence. But a person familiar with the case said Arnold has a deal in place to plead guilty to at least one charge in exchange for the others being dropped. The person spoke on condition of anonymity.
