Chiefs pick defense

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The defensively challenged Kansas City Chiefs took dead aim at their biggest weakness in the first two rounds of the NFL draft Saturday.

In round one, they made Penn State defensive end Tamba Hali the 20th player taken, hoping to upgrade pass-rush skills. Then with their second-round choice, they opted for Bernard Pollard, a 224-pound hitter from Purdue who will challenge to start at either free or strong safety.

Colby's hitting is still a concern. "We continue to struggle at the plate. Each player on the field needs to step up and look to drive the ball and not be satisfied with putting the ball in play," said Colby coach Carl Adams.

Two Lady Trojans sign with schools

Colby Community College Shareka Purnell and Ivana Mijalcevic will take their basketball skills elsewhere.

Purnell, who helped lead the Lady Trojans to the Region VI championship and a seventh-place national finish, recently signed to play for the University of Arkansas-Little Rock.

"She comes in at a position that we need depth at," said head coach Joe Foley. "This young lady gives us immediate experience. She is an intelligent player who does an excellent job of distributing the basketball and running the team."

Purnell, a 5-5 guard who averaged 6.6 points and 5.35 assists this year, led the Lady Trojans to the most wins in the college's history with 32 this past season.

Purnell, a native of Dale City, Va., led Region VI in assists last season and was ranked third in assist-turnover ratio with a 1.78 mark.

"Shareka is a hard worker," said Colby head coach Tom Stephens. "She loves competition and she loves to play. I think she'll do very well in that environment."

Purnell attended C. D. Hylton High School in Woodbridge, Va., where she helped lead the team to four straight winning seasons.

Ivana Mijalcevic has signed a national letter of intent to attend the University of Wisconsin-Madison and play basketball next season.

The University of Wisconsin is a NCAA Division I school in the Big 10.

"We are fortunate to add someone of Ivana's abilities to our 2006 recruiting class," said Badger coach Lisa Stone. "She meets several of our needs in the post, and adds an outside threat with her three-point shooting. She'll be a strong physical presence inside in the Big Ten."

Mijalcevic, a 6-3 forward from Ripanj, Serbia, averaged 9.6 points, 6.7 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.1 steals per game as she helped lead the Colby Community College Lady Trojans to the championship of the Jayhawk Conference and a seventh-place national finish.

She was the team's fourth leading scorer and shot 47 percent from the field including hitting 14-38 three-pointers for 36.8 percent.

"Ivana was a very valuable part of our team who contributed a great deal to our success," said Colby head coach Tom Stephens. "She played power forward and center for us. Ivana is a threat on the perimeter and is also very good inside."
