TMP uses big bats in win

Thomas More Prep won a slugfest doubleheader against Colby Thursday.

TMP won the first game 18-2. Colby's two runs came in the fourth inning, before the run rule went into effect. Kevin Lang's lone hit brought in the two runs.

Mitchell Gatz, Jeremy Dietz, Trent Powell and Brett Wilson each had a hit.

Lang took the loss for Colby. He allowed five hits and seven earned runs in one and one-third innings. Powell and Dietz, respectively, relieved Lang, but could not stop TMP's scoring.

Dietz' grand slam in the second inning was not enough to keep up with TMP in game two. TMP won 18-14.

Dietz' grand slam gave the Eagles a 6-3 lead. TMP answered in the fourth innings with seven runs which gave them the lead for good. TMP had 18 hits.

Lang had three hits and Powell, Cory Sager and Joe Heier each had two hits. Heier had two RBIs. Colby was walked nine times.

Expensive goof

Associated Press

OK, so Alex Gordon's baseball card isn't as valuable as the 1909 Honus Wagner gem that sold for more than $1.2 million a few years ago.

But Gordon's card, which was mistakenly released in limited numbers by Topps, sold last week for $7,500 on Internet auction site eBay. Gordon, a top Kansas City Royals prospect, is playing Double-A ball in Wichita, Kan.

Under Major League Baseball Players Association rules, Gordon's card should not be in circulation. The former University of Nebraska star was the second pick in last year's Major League draft, and he didn't sign a contract until September. The rules say cardmakers can put out rookie cards only for players who make the opening-day roster or played in at least one major league game the year before.
