Bill and Pat Weeks of Hoxie were Sunday afternoon visitors of LaVonne Baxter. Bill made "brownie points" by tilling LaVonne's garden. He also drove down Highway 25 to check on his wheat.

It appears teachers choose their vocation because of their concern for children. They also realize this entails dealing with them outside the classroom and having fun. The eclectic mix of children shows not only in the classroom but on the playground as well. Play day, sponsored by the Kay Club and their leader, Jana Gfeller, was no exception. It took place Wednesday on the Triplains football field. Typical of a Kansas spring day, it started out chilly, cloudy and windy. By mid-afternoon the day was ideal for runners and other events. For spectators, other than watching that special child or grandchild, the panorama was a place of beauty. The lush green grass below and the cumulus clouds floating overhead made one sitting on the side-lines thankful for life in WPC and RS.

The Triplains junior high and high school entertained an appreciative audience with a variety of vocal numbers Thursday evening. The Junior High band played to conclude the program. Mrs. Glenda Graham is the Triplains music instructor. Pam Lewallen, Sandi Margheim, and Blake Potter assisted with props and programs.

Joan (nee Avery) Buckley, daughter of the late Tory and Edna Avery, is approaching her 80th birthday. It will be May 31. They were former residents of Russell Springs. Living Trust Seminar Eliminate Probate and Estate Taxes.

Protect your children's inheritance and keep your family property from ending up with someone else's family.

Some advantages of a Living Trust

- Your loved ones will inherit your estate immediately upon your death, without the expense and delay of probate. Otherwise your estate may go through probate.
- Your estate will not become public record, so details concerning your assets and your estate plan will remain completely private. A Will going through probate is public record. If you use a Will for your estate plan, your financial affairs will not remain private.
- In the event you become incapacitated, your designated trustee will manage your assets as you specify, rather than have a conservator appointed by the court to manage your assets according to rules stated in Kansas statutes.
- With a Trust you can protect your children's inheritance from creditors, divorce, estate taxes and other risks.

Presenter: Dan Diederich is both an Attorney and a Certified Public Accountant. Mr. Diederich operates a law practice focused on family estate planning, and has prepared living trusts for residents throughout the state of Kansas. Mr. Diederich is a frequent public speaker on the subject of family estate planning and thousands of people have attended his seminars and learned how to protect their estates from probate costs, estate taxes, and have learned how to protect their children's inheritance from creditors claims, spousal claims and divorces.
