

Area churches to have Vacation Bible School

Trinity Lutheran Church invites children ages 3 years through sixth grade to Vacation Bible School this summer.

The theme this year is "Fiesta! Where kids are fired up about Jesus." This program will provide fun, memorable Bible-learning activities for kids of all ages. Each day the kids will sing catchy songs, play Grande Games, eat Maraca Munchies, experience Bible adventures and create Bible crafts at the Cactus Craft station. We will have an exciting mission project of making blankets and donating supplies to help families in Mexico.

Fiesta! Is an exciting way for kids to learn more about Jesus love as they learn how Jesus is our friend, Jesus is our Life, Jesus is our Leader, and Jesus is our Savior. VBS will take place 9:30 a.m. to noon May 30 - June 2 at Trinity Lutheran Church at Fifth and Country Club in Colby. If you have any questions or wish to pre-register please call 462-3497.

SonTreasure Island Vacation Bible School is coming to Levant.

Captive Free, a contemporary music ministry team, sponsored by Youth Encounter, will be at Levant Community Church 9 a.m. to noon June 5-8. The Bible school is for children 3 to 12 years old. The event will include puppetry, drama, music and Bible stories. Transportation is available from Brewster and Colby. To pre-register, e-mail levantchurch@st-tel.net or phone 586-2376.

Captive Free and the VBS children will present a barbecue and fun for the community 6:45 p.m. Wednesday, June 7 at Levant Community Church. The evening will include funnel cakes, balloons, horses and face painting.

Jones to perform at Wesleyan

Colby's John Jones will perform a concert at 10:45 a.m. Sunday at Colby Wesleyan Church as part of the morning worship service.

A native of Iowa, Jones has been involved in music all his life. His family sang around the piano at home as well in public settings especially during home church services. Jones attended Grace University in Omaha, Neb., and traveled in various music groups ranging from men's and mixed quartets and the university's choir called Grace Chorale.

A few years after graduation, Jones joined the university's evangelism team and traveled across the United States and Canada sharing the message of the gospel in schools, churches and various youth ministries. His music ministry became limited to the local church during that time and he and wife Karen were raising a family. Jones has occasional concerts across Kansas.

The public is invited Sunday. For more information, call 462-8391.

Religion Briefs

COVINA, Calif. (AP) — The board of the Pacific Southwest region has voted unanimously to break ties with the 1.4 million-member American Baptist Churches in the U.S.A., concluding a long dispute over homosexuality.

The region covers southern California and five other states with about 5 percent of the American Baptists' 5,800 congregations. The break is effective Nov. 1.

Denominational headquarters in Valley Forge, Pa., said "a significant number of churches wish to remain American Baptist" and would form a new southwestern association.

American Baptist policy states that "homosexuality is incompatible with biblical teaching," but southwestern Baptists were upset that, in local situations, practicing homosexuals were ordained to the clergy and held leadership posts in American Baptist agencies.

The Southern Baptist Convention cited such complaints in a 2004 decision to quit the Baptist World Alliance, in which it shared membership with the American Baptists.

Last year, the American Baptists' largest regional unit — the West Virginia association — narrowly rejected a pullout.

The southwestern board cited "deep differences of theological convictions" for its May 11 decision.

Southwestern President Brian Scrivens said "we will seek opportunities for continued fellowship and partnership" despite the break, which occurs "without animosity or malice. We will continue to pray for God's blessing" on the denomination and its congregations.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — In an attack on the Christian radio station Hope FM last week, unidentified gunmen shot and killed a guard, wounded two others and torched part of the building during a broadcast that was comparing teachings of the Bible and Islam's Quran.

The eight masked assailants shouted angrily that the Pentecostal station had failed to take telephone calls, a guard told the Kenya Television Network.

Church and government officials condemned the attack and warned Christians and Muslims not to let the raid spark religious conflict.

"The government condemns this attack. It is a criminal act," spokesman Alfred Mutua said after visiting the station. "We are asking religious leaders not to say words or preach words that would breed intolerance."
