

Kansas offers free fishing

From the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks

To coincide with National Boating and Fishing Week, the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks has announced Saturday and Sunday will be 2006 Free Fishing Days.

One of the best outdoor entertainment bargains in the state, these two days give both novice and seasoned anglers a chance to get started on the fishing season without having to buy a license. The weekend is geared toward families, but anyone can participate.

Kansas has one of the most diverse systems of reservoirs and waterways in the country, along with a variety of sportfish. Black bass, bluegill, channel catfish, crappie, flathead catfish, striped bass, walleye, white bass, and wipers are among the more popular species found throughout the state.

For more information, contact Kansas Department of Wildlife & Parks Operations Office 512 SE 25th Ave., Pratt, Kan. 67124(620) 672-5911.

DALLAS (AP) — Mavericks backup center D.J. Mbenga was suspended without pay for six games for going into the stands to aid the wife of coach Avery Johnson during Game 4 of the Western Conference finals in Phoenix.

The punishment is one game longer than New York Knicks forward Antonio Davis received in January for going from the court into the stands to defend his wife.

TORONTO (AP) — Jason Williams thinks he's ready to return to the NBA after sitting out three years while recovering from a motorcycle crash.

Williams, the former No. 2 NBA draft pick, is in Toronto working out for the Raptors.

In June 2003, Williams crashed his new motorcycle into a light pole. He hasn't played in the NBA since.
