Darren DeLoach, right, held the trophy after winning the modified category Sunday at the Thomas County Raceway. It was his first win of the season.

DeLoach gets first win of season

By Eric Gaede
Thomas County Raceway

With the warm temperatures and a breeze the Thomas County Speedway track Sunday went from tacky to dry-slick for another new track condition at the third race of the season.

Modifieds

The heat races proved to show the fastest runners of the night as the top three positions were heat winners.

Darren DeLoach picked up his first win this season in a big way. DeLoach grabbed the lead before the halfway point and was running away at the finish. Dwayne Dechant came in second after gaining the position from John Fabrizio who finished third.

Nick Tubbs finished fourth, the position he ran in for most of the race. Wheat Lippelmann was running in the top five all race until a late race restart where Dustin Daniels was able to use the bottom groove and get past him for fifth.

Justin Beakley gained six positions to finish seventh. David Schemm, Kevin Hoeme and Mark Zorn rounded out the top 10. Zorn competed in his brother's car, Jeremy, after his car developed mechanical problems.

Stocks

The stock car class again satisfied the racing crowd with very close racing right down to the finish in their heat races.

The main had a different look with Mike Meyer getting out of traffic first and gaining some distance from the rest of the field. Brent Beckman finished second. Randy Tipton and Jason Rogers were trying to get pass Beckman at the checkers. Lloyd Meeske was fifth.

Two drivers' first time at Colby this year found them finishing sixth and seventh, Derrick Broadway and Tom Nelson.

Bombers

Travis Branum continued to gain momentum since destroying his car in the first race of the season. He won his heat, cash dash, and also the main for a clean sweep of the evening's races.

Jeremy Blackwill finished a very close second. Raymond Dechant came in third. Matt Giesenhagen recovered from a broken axle in his heat to finish fourth, Brent Moss and Jake Haines finished fifth and sixth. The race for third was the one to watch as it came down to the checkered flag.

Econos

Justin Colby gained one position from his second place finish the last race to win the econo main event. Alex West finished second with JR Wolfrum and Marshall Hoppe who had been fighting it out all night finishing third and fourth respectively. Lee Hagman grabbed fifth and Richard Plummer who had the lead after an amazing slingshot move off the backstretch wall, went too high in turn one, and ended sixth.

William Dible won the Thomas County Amusement Association's raffle RPM ticket package to Kansas Speedway. The next races are scheduled for 7 p.m. Sunday, June 18.
