Eastern Star meets

Colby Chapter #442, Order of the Eastern Star, met Monday night at the Masonic Hall in Colby. Pearl Crisp Worthy Matron, and Harold Lefmann, Worthy Patron presided in the East.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by the Worthy Patron and the Star Spangled Banner was sung. The Worthy Matron welcomed all present and read a poem about Mothers. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

It was reported five members from Colby attended Grand Chapter in Topeka.

The Grand Master of Masons of Kansas, J. Steven Molstad was the Guest Speaker at the Opening ceremonies.

Several important issues were voted upon and issues were brought up to be taken back to chapters to discuss and will be voted upon in the chapters. Members were asked to continue collecting tabs for Ronald McDonald house. This has been a very successful project with Eastern Star Wing part of the state-wide project that has contributed over $300,000. Please save your tabs and give them to any Eastern Star member.

Several sympathy and get well cards were sent to members. Under Good of the Order the altar was draped and a memorial program was given for eight members that have passed away this past year.

An invitation was read from Radian Chapter in Atwood to attend a dinner, presentation of 25 and 50 year pins and the official visit the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron of Kansas.

Several members plan to attend. An announcement was made that Past Matrons would not meet in May, but would meet June 15 at noon at the Colby Country Club for the last meeting before summer break.

The meeting closed in form and all retired to the dining room for refreshments.

Bible school keeps kids busy in Winona

Linda Latham was coordinator for a five-day ecumenical Vacation Bible School at the Winona United Methodist Church. Teachers Christi Schertz, Mollie Lamb, Ruth Smith, Andrea Plummer, and Debbie Stramel led the children in seeking God's Love on Son Treasure Island. Pam Lewallen taught the children new songs and Dianne Schertz accompanied on the piano. Craft time was spent with Amy Lorenzen instructing the children. Middle school and high school boys and girls assisted with games and refreshments. Marilyn Ochs and Belinda Cranston prepared snacks each day. Friday evening, parents, grandparents, and friends enjoyed hearing the children sing the songs they had learned. Each class presented something of which they had spent the week learning. Everyone was invited into Dunlap Hall for delicious sea treasure cake and ice cream to laud another successful week of Vacation Bible School.

Mary Phifer and James of Westmoreland and Amy Lamb or Hays came Thursday and were over-night guests of John and Tonya Lamb, Gus and Kelly.

Throughout Memorial weekend the Lamb families had many guests. Norma Straub and Glen Ausmus of Denver and Glen's adult daughter, Evelyn, of the San Diego Bay area in California spent two nights in Beth Lamb's home. Other guests Sunday and Monday at either John and Tonya Lamb's or Beth's home were Jason and Mollie Lamb, Maddie and Macey, Dave Lamb, Roger and Marge Ausmus, and Charles Duff of Scott City.

May 13, 2006 was special for Gary and Marilyn Ochs and Lane when they saw Tracie Betz of Quinter receive a master's degree in Early Child Development at Ft. Hays State University. Other family members who attended graduation and shared a meal were Aaron Betz, Jadelyn and Saige, Dusty and Stephanie Daniels and Erika, Randy and Vicki Betz, Pat Ochs, Tony Lohrmeyer and Carmen Fowler.

Lane Ochs was an eighth grade graduate of Triplains. His parents, Gary and Marilyn Ochs, honored him with a reception in their home in Russell Springs. Guests were Aaron and Tracie Betz and girls, Dusty and Stephanie Daniels and Erika, Jay and Mary Ochs, Jace and Kelli, Joyce Kemp, Tony Lohrmeyer, Lynette Thiele, Beth Lamb, Belinda Cranston and sons, and Mike and Sheryl Kough.

The graduation saga continues as Gary and Marilyn Ochs and Lane go west to attend commencement at Falcon High School in Colorado Springs.

Their nephew, Wesley Ausmus, son of Rick and Becky Ausmus, was a member of the high school graduation class.

Jacquetta Barr of Wray, Colo., and her grandson were overnight guests of Gary and Marilyn Ochs and Lane. Jacquetta, sister of Gary, came to attend the funeral for Charles Smith.

The Holsapple siblings had a good visit both Sunday and Monday. Homer and Marcella Overholt of Brighton, Colo., Floyd Holsapple of Aurora, Colo., and Henry Holsapple, visited with Dorothy Moulden and Lynn Moulden. They also attended the VFW services at the Winona cemetery.

Cameron and Jessica Koster of Hutchinson were Memorial weekend guests of Art and Pat Koster and Lucille Bruns.

Mick and Vickie Lowe were Friday and Monday overnight guests of Jean Lowe en-route to and from Colorado Springs.

Brewster citywide sale a success last weekend

The City-Wide Garage last Saturday was a huge success, bringing many to town.

Bob Baird's funeral was held Thursday, June 1 in Brewster, with burial at the Brewster Cemetery. He had been living in Goodland the past 13 years. My uncle Rodney Baird, of Salem, Ore., Uncle Bob's brother, stayed with me at night all of the past week. Rodney visited many old friends while in town and the surrounding communities. He graduated from Brewster in 1943.

B. J. and Justus Baird of Neodesha visited with his dad Bruce and Donita Baird over the weekend. On Saturday they all went to Denver to the Broncos Fanfare Days, to get autographs and pictures of the players. J.R. and Heath Baird and Jalyn Reid also with them.
