Colby's American Legion team places second at Hays Tournament

Colby's American Legion baseball team won three of five games last weekend at the Hays Tournament.

Colby placed second in the tournament.

Colby defeated Salina 18-4. Jeremy Dietz led the team with four RBIs. Dietz and Mitchell Gatz each had three hits. Colby had 12 hits and nine errors.

Kevin Lang was the winning pitcher allowing three earned runs in five innings.

Colby defeated Goodland 12-2. Dietz's pitching was strong allowing one hit in four innings.

Gatz hit a home run for Colby. Lang led the team with three RBIs.

Gatz and Heath Bieker each had two RBIs. Five different players each had two hits.

"This was a great day offensively," said Colby coach John Gatz.

Strong pitching also helped Colby defeat Garden City 9-1. Lang allowed one hit in five innings.

Colby's offense again was productive with 11 hits. Gatz, Lang and Brett Wilson each had two hits. Gatz led Colby with two RBIs.

Colby's two losses were by no more than two runs. Hays defeated Colby 5-3. All of Colby's runs were in the fifth inning. Joseph Heier and Dietz each had two hits. Wilson, Heier and Gatz each had a RBI.

Colby left six runners on base. Dietz pitched the entire game for Colby. He allowed three earned runs and struck out six.

Colby's two-run seventh inning was not enough as Russell won 6-5. Wilson led with two hits. Bieker had two RBIs.

Bieker also pitched the entire game. He gave up 11 hits and six earned runs.

Colby is 9-6 and play Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Garden City Tournament.

Colby plays Gove County 5 p.m. July 5 at Grainfield.
