Brewster enjoying a quiet week

Has been rather quiet around town this week, just hot, hot and so dry. Hopefully we will get some good rains soon, the crops are really needing it.
Want to congratulate Shane Benham, registered nurse, for becoming the Utilization Review Coordinator on the staff at Goodland Regional Medical Center.

Brewster Correspondent

Don't forget on Sunday, July 30, there will be a "Creation Celebration" in Hunter Park, when the United Methodist and Our Savior's Lutheran Churches worship together. Anyone is invited to come join them, activities will begin at 9:30 a.m. with the worship service at 10:30 a.m. A potluck dinner will be at noon. Bring your lawn chair and enjoy worshipping outdoors.

Linda Pinson from Austin, Texas, daughter of Nettie Mills, was here to visit for a few days. Good to have Nettie back at the Center, after her fall a few weeks ago.
Tara Thompson, granddaughter of Marg Westover had a baby boy June 7, 2006. His name is Trey Lamha.

The annual T.C. Dillinger reunion was held in Colby July 22. Clarice Blakely, Sidney Killinger, Troy Dillinger, Olga Schwartkopf and Dwight Dillinger were there with enough members of their family to make a total of 65. A good meal and many memories were shared throughout the day.

Devotional
Dear child of my heart, do you sometimes feel caught on a treadmill? You wake and you work and you worry. You stop and you sleep and you start all over again. Are you following dreams that are not my plans?
Why do you spend your money on obsessions that only make you restless for more? Why spend your energy on things that will never satisfy that inner hunger in you? I created you with a longing that only I can fill. "All you who are thirsty, come and drink. Those of you who do not have money, come, buy and eat." Listen to me, trust in me, reach out to me, and your soul will delight in the richness of spiritual abundance. Your own, God. Isaiah 55:1-2.
