Exhibits open at museum

The Kansas Museum of History’s next two special exhibits focus on activities that many Kansans enjoy. The displays will be featured in the Museum’s Special Exhibits Gallery, along with the permanent Main Gallery.

“Quilts” will run Oct. 20-Feb. 18, 2007, and feature the best examples from the Museum’s collection of more than 200 exceptional quilts and bedcovers.

Among the highlighted textiles will be the striking Iris Garland quilt, and finely worked pieces from Emporia quiltmaker Josephine Craig.

This is a must-see exhibit for lovers of fine handwork opens March 16, 2007, and focuses on community and collegiate sports as well as professional play. From baseball, basketball, football, to hockey — if Kansans played it, the game shows in this exhibit.

The Kansas Museum of History is one of 18 facilities operated by the Kansas State Historical Society. The museum is open 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday; 1-5 p.m. Sunday, is located at 6425 SW Sixth Ave., Topeka, 66615-1099; (785) 272-8681; TTY (785) 272-8683 or on the Internet at www.ksks.org.

very well. Also John Schroeder had knee surgery in Denver on Monday, Aug. 7, and he is also doing well. We pray for both of you to have a speedy recovery.

Judy Dunlap also had knee surgery several weeks ago, and is at home doing fine. See you downtown soon, Judy.

The Phil and Sharron Knox home was extra busy the past two weeks. They traveled to Kansas City July 20 to attend the Gideons International Convention. Their daughter, Stephanie Ford, from St. Louis, Mo., met them in Kansas City and the grandparents helped drive to Brewster bringing the three granddaughters, Melanie, Amanda, and Natalie. The girls enjoyed a variety of activities during a week stay in Brewster. One day included going to the fields and feedlot with Grandpa.

On July 28, Sharron, Stephanie and the three girls went to Norton to spend time with Sharron’s mother, Aletha Rule. Great-grandma Rule treated the girls to rides at the home-owned carnival during the Norton County Fair. The Ford family began their return home from Norton on July 29.

Arriving at the Knox home on Aug. 1 was their daughter-in-law Vickie, and grandson Samuel from Euless, Texas. A week of activities was enjoyed with another farm and feedlot outing with Grandpa. Samuel enjoyed the carnival at the Thomas County Fair and seeing the 4-H exhibits of his Uncle Tim. Vickie and Sam began their trip home on Aug. 7.

The annual Thompson family reunion was held this past weekend. They spent most of the day Saturday at Hunter Hall and Park, visiting and playing a lot of games. There were a lot of tents and campers parked at Marg Westover’s, with a Sunday morning breakfast cook-out. Sounds like a lot of fun.

Don’t Give Up. So we do not give up. Our physical body is becoming older and weaker, but our spirit inside us is made new every day. We have small troubles for a while now, but they are helping us gain an eternal glory that is much greater than the troubles. We set our eyes not on what we see but on what we cannot see. What we see will last only a short time, but what we cannot see will last forever. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18.
