Cory

Memories surround me
But sadness has found me
I'd do anything for more time
Never before has someone meant more
And I can't get you out of my mind
There is so much
But I know that I don't understand

You're dancing with the angels
Walking in new life
You're dancing with the angels
Heaven fills you eyes
Now that you're dancing with the angels

But I know
One day I'll see you again.

Ivan James Steinle

Ivan James Steinle, 78, lifelong resident of Colby, died Monday, September 11, 2006 at Hays Medical Center. He was born two miles east of Mingo on the family farm to the late David F. Steinle and Mary Weinmeister. He attended school at the Union District until it closed and then went to school in Mingo.

In 1950, he entered the army and served in the Korean War. Upon his return in 1952 he married Veleda Haskell in Rogers, Arkansas. They moved back to the family farm and in 1955 were blessed with their daughter, Rylinda. Ivan was a member of the V.F.W., American Legion and also served on several bank boards. He was a man who knew no strangers and loved spending time with his family and friends. His lifetime enjoyment was farming, which he did all of his life. Ivan was more than a farmer; he was a banker, a devoted husband, loving father, and wonderful grandpa. In his time of illness, he did find his peace in the Lord and accepted Him as his Lord and Savior.

Ivan is survived by his wife of 53 years, Veleda of Colby; daughter, Rylinda and her husband Charles Barnett of Colby; 2 grandchildren: Kristy and her husband Michael Karnes of Colby and Brian Barnett of Bloomington, Indiana. He is also survived by several cousins and many wonderful friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, sister Lucille and brother Hubert.

A memorial service was held on Friday, September 15, 2006 at the Lutheran Church by Pastor Alvin Bruenger. Pallbearers were Dale Leighty, Rock Bedore, Quinton Leighty, Michael Karnes, Bud Murphy and Randy Reynolds. Honorary pallbearers were Ben Keller, Leo Keller, Les Keller, Richard Epard, Glen Close, Richard Pinkston, Richard Kwasnicka and Dennis Scheetz. Burial was at Beulah Cemetery.
