Deaths

Joel McIntyre

Joel McIntyre, 61, of Rexford, died Friday, Sept. 23, 2005, at Citizens Medical Center in Colby.

Mr. McIntyre was adopted by Cleo and Francis McIntyre and raised in Rexford.

After graduation he moved to Colby and lived there many years where he had four children, Joanna, Jeff, Scott and Jason.

He searched and found his siblings from his biological parents and built a relationship with them over the years.

He later returned to Rexford for the last several years.

Mr. McIntyre is survived by his mother, Francis McIntyre; children Joanna and Mark Roman, Jeff and Sheila McIntyre, Scott McIntyre and Jason McIntyre; siblings Frank McIntyre, Beverly O'Connor, Carl and Becky Lepley, Rick and Diana Lepley, Terri and Teya Lepley and Freda and David Griffin and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 5 p.m. Thursday at Rexford Community Church in Rexford.

A memorial has been established in his name at Sunflower Bank in Colby.

Correction

The last four paragraphs of an article regarding the state's new Sunday liquor sales law that was published on Monday, Sept. 26, were inadvertently omitted due to a production error. For the benefit of our readers, the last four paragraphs follow:

Mark Joslyn, owner of Joslyn's Food Pride, as well as Kirk Getz, owner of Getz' IGA, and Linda Johnson, owner of the Hitchin Post, a bar and grill, won't be effected by the Sunday sales because they are not open for business on Sunday.

"I need a day off," Johnson joked. Steve Newell, owner of a downtown bar called Harry's Place, said he only learned of the law change on Wednesday and hasn't made up his mind whether he'll sell beer on Sunday or not.

Darrel Mader, owner of Mader Liquor, also is not open on Sunday he said he will not be changing his store hours to accommodate the law change.

The Colby Free Press wants to maintain an accurate record of our town. Please report any error or lack of clarity in a news story to us at 462-3963.

Harvest time starting up in Brewster

The sunflower and dry land corn harvest is starting to get into gear so they'll be some late nights coming up for the farmers and elevators. Wheat is being planted so hopefully we will get some much-needed nice slow rains.

Sure feel for the people along the Gulf Coast. Like a woman in the center said yesterday, "I would rather clean out a dirt storm than go through what those people are facing so often." Know there will be many people starting life over someplace else. We pray for them all.

it and it is always a wonderful experience to set in the open meadow and worship God with songs of praise and a good message and fellowship. I have gotten to attend the last two years, but did not this year because I went to Denver to be with my daughter Dana. She started her chemo treatments Monday, Sept. 26. Thank you for keeping her in your prayers.

Thursday evening, Sept. 15, Marion and Coleen Crumrine's daughter Carlene and husband Joe Moore from Lakin spent the night as they were on their way to Lake Thompson in South Dakota for a few days of fishing.

Bob and Barbara Fisher from Colorado Springs called on Duane and Ruth Jones Wednesday afternoon. Bob was a neighbor at one time of the Jones.

Helping George McClelland celebrate his 88th birthday on Sunday were his sisters, Marie Edwards and Ruth Jones and Duane. Others present were Rhonda and Dale Skrdlant, Loreeta Hayden and Melba Curry.

Saturday overnight guests of Warren and Bonnie Reid were John and Laurie Jones, Mallory and Julie of Kismet. On Sunday, Sept. 18 they were in Goodland to celebrate Helen Jones' 93rd birthday. Other members of John's family present were June Miller of Apple Valley, Calif., Fern Martin of Broomfield, Jean Warren of Colorado Springs, Joe and Margie Stegman of Hays, Larry and Betty Kear of Salina and Dick and Joyce Jones of Littleton, Colo.

My dearest child, I struggle to see the way you struggle and struggle in your own strength. So often you feel depleted. You push and fret and end up feeling burned out and alone. There is no need for you to go on like this. I long to give you inner strength. Draw on my resources and live as you were designed to live — as a branch attached to the vine of my eternal love. All that you require will flow from my abundance to your need. And when my life has filled your emptiness to overflowing, it will branch out into the lives of those around you. I am the vine; you are the branch. Come to me and live. Abundantly yours, God. John 15:5-7.

Childhood screening planned

The Northwest Kansas Educational service Center staff serving young children with special needs will be assisting the Colby School District with the early childhood screening to be held Tuesday, Oct. 11 and Wednesday, Oct. 12 at the United Methodist Church in Colby.

Appointments can be made by contacting school nurse Emily Strange at 460-5111. The preschool screening is for children 0- to 5-years-old who will not attend kindergarten in the fall of 2006. A separate screening will be held in March, 2006 for children will be starting school.

Thank You

To our wonderful community of Colby. Bill and I want to thank everyone for their cards, phone calls and prayers during Bill's recent surgery. We also want to thank Dr. Hildyard and staff, Logan Co. Hospital and staff, for the lawn elves. Last of all we couldn't have done all this without Rod & Shelly, Gary & Joni, and to our helper, Carol Fite.

Doris E. (Cayton) Barnett

Doris Elaine Barnett, age 83, passed away Monday, September 12, 2005 at Cheyenne County Hospital at St. Francis, Ks. Doris was born May 12, 1922 in Atwood, Ks. to Nonie and Adella (Gatlin) Cayton. Doris graduated from Rawlins County High School in 1940.

On November 10, 1949, she was united in marriage to Wilbur D. Barnett at the First Baptist Church in Colby, Ks.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Nonie Cayton, Adella Cayton; brother, Melvin Cayton; and son, Roger Dale Barnett. Survivors include her husband of 55 years, Wilbur Barnett of the home; one son Warren and wife Josie of Colby, Ks.; two sisters: Melva Buckle and husband Don of Arma, Ks. and Meda Gregory of Webb City, Mo. and sister-in-law, Barbara Cayton of Chickasha, Ok; four grandchildren: Michael Boles of Oakley, Ks., Zachary Barnett of Oakley, Ks., Shannon Schneider of Kimball, Neb., Natasha Barnett of Wichita, Ks.;

four great-grandchildren: Corbin Zachary Boles, Sierra Schneider, Austin Schneider and Anastasia Force.

Doris was a loving wife, mother and sister.

She will be missed by a multitude of relatives and friends.

For those I love and those who love me: When I am gone, release me - let me go, I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years. I gave my love, you can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love we each have shown But now it's time, I travel on alone. So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must part So bless now the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on: So if you need me, - Call - and I will come. Though you can't see me, or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All my love around you, soft and clear. And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home".
