

Titans topple Golden Plains

By Jay Kelley
The Triplains-Brewster Titans started district play with a 46-20 win over Golden Plains in Rexford Friday.

The Titans led from the first score, but were unable to put the scrappy Bulldogs away until the fourth quarter.

After forcing Golden Plains to punt on its first possession, Aric Grob scored on a keeper from the 1 and Andrew Starns ran in for the extra points to take the lead, 8-0 with 9:03 left.

Titan Jeff Reid came up with an interception on the Titan 38 with 1:27 on the clock. The Titans took advantage, scoring seven plays later on a three-yard run by Starns with 11:15 left in the half. Grob found Bryant Plummer for the conversion and the Titans led 16-0.

Golden Plains scored on their next drive as well. They started on their 15 and marched 65 yards in 5:30 on nine plays, finishing with a 22-yard run by Dan Rogers. Drew Stevenson scored the conversion on a keeper to cut the lead to 16-8.

Triplains-Brewster's next touchdown, a four-yard Grob to Reid pass with 35 seconds left in the half was called back because of an illegal block. Grob went to Seth Carpenter on the next play and scored again. The conversion failed, but the Titans led 22-8.

The first play of the Bulldogs' drive saw the ball snapped over Stevenson's head and Jance McKee come up with the fumble on the Golden Plains 10. Two plays later, Grob found Barrett for the last score of the half. Reid caught the conversion and the Titans took a 30-8 lead into half-time.

Golden Plains wasn't done, though. Their defense pinned the Titans back on their first drive, forcing a punt and giving them the ball on their 30.

Andrew Broeckelman ran 45 yards on the first play to give the Bulldogs a first and goal on the 5. Two plays later, Broeckelman ran into the end zone. The conversion failed, but the Bulldogs had cut the lead to 30-14 with 8:53 left in quarter.

Stevenson ran into the end zone again with 1:44 left in the quarter to put Golden Plains within 10 at 30-20, but that is as close as they would get.

The Titans scored on their next drive on a one-yard run by Starns as the quarter ended. Plummer ran the conversion in for a 38-20 Titan lead.

Plummer also ran the last score in, another one-yard run with 8:10 left in the game. Grob ran the conversion in to make the score 46-20.

Triplains-Brewster had 137 yards on the ground and Grob went 16-26 for 221 yards in the air.

Plummer had 13 carries for 56 yards and a touchdown. Starns had 11 carries for 53 yards and two touchdowns. Carpenter had four carries for 25 yards. Grob had eight carries, including sacks, for only three yards, but also scored one rushing touchdown.

Barrett had five catches for 86 yards and a touchdown. Carpenter had six catches for 84 yards and a touchdown. Starns had three catches for 22 yards. Barrett and Jeff Reid each had a single catch. Starns also had 15 tackles. Sam Smith had 12 tackles and two assists. McKee had seven tackles and a fumble recovery.

The Titans (4-1) play Cheylin 7:30 p.m. Friday in Bird City.

Golden Plains plays Wallace County 7:30 p.m. Friday in Sharon Springs.

Oakley breaks away from Eagles

By John Van Nostrand
Colby Free Press

Colby Eagle coach Bob Ray said he sees the development of his team on the field and it is just a matter of time before everyone see it on the scoreboard.

During Oakley's 28-6 win over visiting Colby Friday, Ray said there were moments the Eagles were putting a complete game together.

"They are starting to get it," he said. "They are getting it on defense and blocking well. They did some good things. They are ready to turn the corner."

Ray said the Eagles' play against Oakley is commendable, considering the week before, undefeated Oakley won at St. Francis. St. Francis easily got by Colby Sept. 15.

The Eagles held Oakley to 12 first-half points. Ray said people expecting the Oakley game against Colby to be reminiscent of the St. Francis game against Colby, should look at Oakley first.

"That's their own fault," he said. "We came ready to play."

Oakley's first half points were all in the first quarter. Racette rushed in from 6 yards out and Younkin scored later on a one-yard run.

Colby kept Oakley out of the end zone in the second and fourth quarters which Ray said is another sign Colby's defense is beginning to execute better, shed off blocks and take advantages of the opposition's mistakes.

But Colby's mistakes are still causing troubles.

Colby's Heath Stephens returned the second half opening kick off for a touchdown, but it was brought back by penalty. Ray said that moment was critical.

"It could have been a 12-8 game," he said. "It would have changed the game."

Oakley responded in the third quarter. Kuhlman returned a pass interception 40 yards for a touchdown. Later in the quarter, Racette scored on a 15-yard run.

Like against Atwood the week before, Ray utilized two quarterbacks, Heath Stephens and Ryan White.

Ray said he is not creating a quarterback controversy, he is just using each player when needed.

"We use different quarterbacks for different situations," he said. Ray said Stephens and White, a senior, and Stephens, a junior, are handling the duties and strategies well.

White completed 7-16 for 101 yards and three interceptions. Stephens was 1-2 for 10 yards. Eli Robert had three catches for 67 yards. His longest reception was for 30 yards.

Mitchell Tuma scored Colby's lone score in the fourth quarter on a 4-yard run. Ray said other teams are starting to notice Tuma's skills, especially after his 100 plus yard performance at Atwood Sept. 22. Tuma finished the game with 19 carries for 65 yards.

"They were keyed on him," Ray said.

Eric Jurek rushed four times for 35 yards. Colby had 130 yards on the ground.

Treat Bugbee led Colby's defense being in on nine tackles and had one sack. Mitchell Gatz helped with five tackles.

Colby is 0-5 and plays Decatur County (Oberlin) 7 p.m. Friday at Dennen Field. Atwood defeated Oberlin 34-28 in overtime Friday.

Despite the winless record so far, Ray said he still does not see it during practices and games.

"These kids are positive, even at 0-5," Ray said.

Trojans win two at tournament

The Lady Trojan volleyball team went 2-1 at the Frank Phillips Tournament this past weekend, but the biggest news was an injury to sophomore outside hitter Ana Kokanovic.

Coach Pedro Gonzalez said Kokanovic sustained a knee injury and wasn't able to compete. Gonzalez said she will be evaluated this week and her status for the rest of the season will be determined at that time.

Despite Kokanovic's injury, the Lady Trojans beat Western Texas

Community College 25-30, 30-27, 28-30, 30-22, 15-13 and Clarendon 31-29, 30-21, 31-33, 30-26.

Colby's loss was to No. 14 ranked Frank Phillips (22-30, 16-30, 20-30).

"We would really have liked to have Ana when we played against Frank Phillips," Gonzalez said. "When you play against a team as good as Frank Phillips, a ranked team, you need to have your best players playing at a high level."

Cynthia Danthon (Combs la Ville, France sophomore) and Vicmari Prospero (Santurce, Puerto Rico freshman) were named to the All-Tournament team.

Colby plays Barton County 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at Colby Community Building.

Cross Country

The Trojan men's and women's cross country teams competed Saturday at the Oklahoma State Jam-boree in Stillwater, Okla.

The men finished ninth, the women finished 20th and Betty Rotich finished third in the university division race.
