Legendary coach and wrestler Dan Gable will be the featured speaker for Colby college wrestling fundraiser which begins at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Colby Community Building.

A buffet dinner will be served prior to the speech by Gable.

"This is an extraordinary opportunity for everyone in the region," said Colby head wrestling coach Steve Lampe. "Dan Gable is one of the most sought-after motivational speakers in the country. I have tried to bring him to Colby for many years and we finally managed to find a date when he was available."

Gable is a renowned speaker on the topics of overcoming adversity, team building, performance enhancement and motivation. He relates his life experiences and gives his formula for success which listeners can apply in their everyday lives.

During his prep and collegiate career, he compiled an incredible 118-1 record, with his only defeat coming in the NCAA finals of his senior year. In 1972, Gable captured the gold medal at the Summer Olympics without surrendering a single point to any opponent. In his final 21 Olympic matches, he registered 12 falls and outscored the remaining nine opponents, 130-1.

Gable joined the University of Iowa coaching staff in 1972 as an assistant and took over the program in 1977. He remained as the head coach until 1997. In that span, he captured 15 national championships, compiled a career record of 355-21-5, and coached 152 All-Americans and 45 national champions. The Hawkeyes won 21 consecutive Big Ten championships with Gable as the head coach.
