Prairie Gem 4-H elects new officers at meeting

The main business at the Sept. 11 meeting for the members of the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club was election of officers for the 2006-2007 year. The election followed the usual opening portion of the meeting.

The meeting was called to order with the flag salute led by Whitney Schultz. Avery Schultz led members in singing "Jump, Shake." Eight members answered roll call by telling how many pets they have.

Officer and committee reports were presented. Members were reminded that completed 4-H record books are due to leaders on Oct. 2 at 4:00. Officer's training will be on Nov. 3. Lost and found items from the fair are being kept at the Extension Office and need to be picked up. Members were asked to try to think of community service projects and bring ideas to next meeting.

Club meets in Atwood

John Athey Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Park Hill Restaurant at Atwood for lunch Sept. 25, and held their meeting at the Midwest Energy Community Room after lunch.

Regent Judith Watkins opened the meeting in ritualistic form. Kay Weber read the President General's message followed by Ardis Stark who gave National Defense concerning an order for all Kansas Schools to teach the Constitution of the United States. This is the 218th year since the Constitution was written and is honored each year in September with Constitution Week.

Ardis announced there are two service centers now, one in Oakley and the other in Norton.

Roll call was answered by members and our guest, Linda Lou Fossett of Atwood with an "Historical Church Memory." A get well card was signed for Florine Hurst. Treasurers report was given by Irene Cressler.

She reported that she and her husband, Larry, attended the state fair and were awarded for owning Kansas farm land for 100 years. The land was purchased in 1906 by Herb Cressler, with Larry purchasing it in 1952.

Sharon Maurath gave some interesting trivia on the Star Spangled Banner.

Meeting was closed with prayer by Chaplain Irene Cressler.

Ada Mae Schruben was honored with a beautiful birthday cake followed by touring the Atwood Museum and the church.

Next meeting will be Oct. 25 at the Tower House in Gove for lunch at 11:30 a.m.

Jean Lowe

Winona Correspondent

September began, for me, on a mission of people stories. I saw how people everywhere lie in the "bellies of their comfort zones."

First, it was gracious of "Neat" Repshire to move out of her comfort zone to cover the WRSPC news during September. Compliment her when you see her. She did a great job.

Labor Day evening my daughter, Cynthia, and I cruised a street in Denver lined with sidewalk cafes for my "last supper" (for a few days, at least). We chose a Thai restaurant. All along the walk there were hordes of people, in their comfort zones, taking advantage of an end of the summer balmy evening. Snippets of garbled conversations were heard amidst a group of Caucasian college students and another group of Thai young people while we enjoyed a delicious Thai dinner.

It was mesmerizing in an eerie sort of way.

The Bartell family gathered in Ellis for their annual camp-out. The Winona family members attending were Joyce Bartell, Daylene Bartell, Kyle Bartell, Rhonda and Robin. Others joining the family throughout the week were Bill and Angie Sroufe of McPherson, and Louie and Dell Tholen of Baker, Ore.

Joyce Bartell's cousin, Dora Mae O'Kelley, and her husband, Jerry, of Dayton, Ohio, were Joyce's guests. They called on Beth Lamb. Dora Mae and Beth were first grade classmates in Holcomb.

Jerry Lamb of Roff, Okla., was victor in a coon hunt at Atwood, beating his Kansas coon hunting buddies out of their comfort zone.

The Titans and the Titan communities have bonded and are focused on their dreams. Congratulations on your victories and also to Amberly Gfeller and Eric Grob, 2006 homecoming queen and king.

Wedding bells

At her "home on the range" Beth Lamb was wed to Scott City native, Charles Duff, at 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon September 30, 2006. Approximately 100 family members and friends witnessed the nuptials performed by Rev. Sheryl Johnson. Following the ceremony the bride and groom and guests "chowed down" on steaks prepared by the Duff siblings and served directly from the barbecue grill. The steaks were complimented with a chuckwagon supper and all the trimmings.

The wedding cakes were made and decorated by Tonya Lamb and Amy Lamb provided the punch. Beth's grandchildren were servers. Out of town guests of the bride were Jerry Lamb of Roff, Okla., Mary Phifer and James of Westmoreland, and Amy Lamb of Yukon, Okla. The bride and groom will reside on the Duff farm south of Scott City.

Hats off to you, RSVP ladies of the WRSPC area. All three towns were represented at the hat party held in the Chamber of Commerce Building in Winona Tuesday. Definitely in her comfort zone, Laura Withington, director of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, pulled all kinds of surprises out of the hat

In Loving Memory of Casey McPheeters

If tear's could build a stairway, and memories build a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven, and bring you home again.

My heart aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow, what it meant to love you - no one can ever know.

Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today - A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

Love - Mom, Dad & Jen
