Deaths

Nancy Wise Clair

Nancy Wise Clair, 91, of Ellinwood, formerly of Stockton, died Sunday, Oct. 15, 2006, at Central Kansas Medical Center in Great Bend.

Mrs. Clair was born Jan. 22, 1915, to George A. and Anna Binder Wise. She was a homemaker, cleaned homes, hung wallpaper and painted for many people in the Stockton area.

On May 2, 1937 she married George Clair in Woodston. They were married 47 years and farmed near Woodston before moving to Stockton in Nov., 1979. She moved to Great Bend in 1988.

Mrs. Clair is survived by her son, Robert "Bob" Clair of Colby; daughter Judy and husband Butch Hunter of Great Bend; two sisters, Ellen Kleinschmidt of Plainville and Ruth Wingate of Ulysses, Neb.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Thelma I. Frerichs

Thelma I. Frerichs, 77, of Colby, died Monday, Oct. 16, 2006, at Infinia of Colby. Mrs. Frerichs was born Dec. 7, 1928, in Rawlins County.

She was a retired telephone operator for Southwestern Bell.

Mrs. Frerichs is survived by her husband, William H. Frerichs of Colby; a son, Richard L. Frerichs of Goodland; two brothers, Jimmy L. Biggs of Lorenburg, N.C., and

Ruth Elaine Dahl

Ruth Elaine (Eitel) Dahl, 76, of Colorado Springs, Colo., died Thursday, Oct. 12, 2006, at Cedarwood Care Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Dahl was born June 30, 1930, in La Crosse to John and Anna Pauline (Reh) Eitel of Timken.

After graduating from high school in Bison in 1948, she attended Grace Bible Institute in Omaha, Neb., for two years. There she met Asher W. Dahl of Colby. They were married Aug. 4, 1950 at Bison Baptist Church.

After Asher finished medical training, they moved to Colby, where they lived for 28 years before moving to Colorado in 1987.

She was a homemaker. While in Colby, she was a member of First Baptist Church. She enjoyed music, played the organ, taught Sunday school and participated in other church activities.

Mrs. Dahl is survived by her husband, Dr. Asher W. Dahl of Colorado Springs, Colo.; two sons, Larry Dahl of Phoenix, Ariz., and Dale Dahl of Las Vegas, Nev.; one daughter, Karen Lile of Colorado Springs, Colo.; three sisters, Elda Hildebrand of Stafford, Linda Goldsworth of Hutchinson and Edith Edler of Bison and eight grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; stepmother Ann Marie (Fritzeimer) Eitel; sister Helen Rucker of Ontario, Ore., and three infant sisters.

Services were held Monday at Harrison Chapel in Colby with Pastor Jerry Meston and Pastor Bruce Caldwell of Woodland Park, Colo., officiating. Burial was at Beulah Cemetery in Colby.

Memorials are suggested to First Baptist Church of Colby and Heartland Christian School and may be sent in care of Harrison Chapel, P.O. Box 634, 190 S. Franklin, Colby, Kan., 67701.

Brownville alumni holds school reunion

The Brownville alumni met for their 19th school reunion on Saturday, Oct. 7 at the Marie Edwards Hall in Goodland with 38 in attendance. After greeting everyone and looking at the display of pictures, the group went to Hank's Cafe for their noon meal. Glen Burk called the meeting to order after returning to the hall and everyone enjoyed his humorous jokes and some readings about aging and the "Golden Years." Glen lead the group singing accompanied by Harold Heinrichs on the guitar. Bud and Jesse Enfield were recognized as the "newlywed" couple, and several other couples were recognized for having been married 65 years or over.

Nadine Kammer presented several ideas of what would be available for a Brownville School Memorial to be placed on the site of where the school was built. After an open discussion it was decided to have something if enough money can be raised to cover the cost. Anyone wishing to donated to this Brownville School Memorial can do so by mailing your donation to Nadine Kammer, Box 25, Brewster, Kan., 67732. (Make checks payable to Brownville School Fund.)

Glen Burk consented to stay on as chairman and Nadine Hockett as secretary-treasurer. Next year's reunion will again be held on the first
