Daughters of Isabella have gourmet meal

By Margaret Denneler
Recording Secretary

Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle #747 met in the church basement at 6 p.m. Oct. 5 for a delicious gourmet meal. The meal of pork loin, potato casserole, jello carrot salad, sliced cucumbers, sliced tomatoes, rolls and a delicious pumpkin roll with cream cheese filing was prepared and served by Marje Robben, Theresa Baker and CeeAnn Rinehart.

A short meeting followed. It was conducted by Regent Loretta Zerr. Loretta introduced our guest, Lucille Reif, state regent. Lucille talked about her trip to Toronto, Canada for the international convention. Lucille said we would be receiving new ceremonial booklets with changes made to simplify our meetings. Every meeting is considered an open meeting and guests can be invited. Kansas Daughters of Isabella earned five of the seven awards presented at that Aug. 6-10 convention. She was proud of that and told us of a picture in "The Register, Catholic Diocese of Salina" this week.

CeeAnn read a devotional for October for the Good of the Order.

Loretta said there will be a mass Nov. 2 at 7 p.m. for deceased Daughters of Isabella. After mass a rosary will be said and then we will have coffee and rolls downstairs.

The next meeting will be Nov. 2 with quarterly reports done at 6:30 and regular meeting at 7 p.m. Hostesses will be Susan Veeh and Loretta Zerr.

Prairie Gem 4-H installs officers at October meeting

The installation of officers ceremony highlighted the Oct. 9 meeting of the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club.

Installed as officers of the club for the current year were: Tim Knox, president; Avery Schultz (absent), vice president; Melissa Baird, secretary; Wyatt Werth, treasurer; Layton Werth, reporter; Whitney Schultz and Avery, historians; Baylee Westover (absent) parliamentarian; Andrew Starns and Ethan Kammer, song leaders; Ben Baird, Rose Bear and Kasey Hoyt, recreation leaders; Melissa, Rose and Tim (alternate), 4-H council representatives.

The Werth family and Melissa decorated the window at the Senior Center for National 4-H Week and a program to recruit new members was hosted at the school on Wednesday, Oct. 11, to recruit new members.

They decorated the window incorporating the National 4-H Week Theme, "Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club, Making the Best Better." All members were invited to bring projects or fair project pictures to display in the window. Ice cream was given out at the school program for all those attending.

Sixteen members and one guest (Brittany Kammer) answered the roll call of "What color of hair do you want to have?" Audrey Hoyt led the flag salute. Oct. 10 a come and go project fair was hosted at the Thomas County 4-H Building from 5:30 to 6:30 for the public to learn more about 4-H. The Methodist Church of Brewster invited all members to display their 4-H fair exhibits and attend a potluck in honor of their hard work on Sunday, Oct. 15. Nov. 3 an Officer's Training will be held at the Thomas County 4-H Building, contact the Thomas County Extension Office for more details

For the program Whitney gave a project talk on her market sheep. She received grand champion showmanship and a purple with her market sheep. Andrew gave a project talk on his market steer, Davey. He received fourth blue with Davey and worked most of the summer getting him ready for the fair. Wyatt told about his state fair projects. He took his wooden box with a deer carved on the lid; it received a red ribbon. He took a photograph that received a blue and a Centennial Award. Last year's state fair photo receiving a 4-H Foundation Award and will be featured in the 2007 4-H Calendar.

Benjamin led the group in a game of Ghost, Ghost, Pumpkin (similar to Duck, Duck, Goose). The meeting adjourned with all reciting the 4-H Pledge. Audrey and Kasey Hoyt served refreshments of brownies and pretzels.

Pi Gamma learns how gardens grow

By Susan Haines

Pi Gamma

Pi Gamma Club of Colby faces the new seasons joining hands with Sorosis and Shakespeare Club.

What a glorious morning to kick off the year, of Sept. 3, at the home of Peggy Frahm. Bev Eicher opened the business meeting with all members repeating collect and answering roll call with "How did your garden grow?" followed with the treasurer's report by Mary Smith. Seventy "Books for Babies" baskets were delivered to new mothers. Stylish yearbooks were presented to all members by Sharon Kriss.

Karen Hodson regretfully resigned her position as courtesy committee chairman because she is moving to McCook. We'll miss her and her bubbly personality at Fairview Estates.

What a beautiful evening for fall when Peggy lead a tour of her lovely xeriscape backyard. Inspired by gardens and plants from Santa Fe, N.M., her yard is full of perennials that are low on maintenance but high on beauty. Also, she has a lovely container garden with beautiful flowers blooming.

Lon Frahm provided delicious seasonal fruits from his garden and Peggy served up delectable breads and muffins.

The meeting of Sept. 22 was held at Pioneer Memorial Library. How nice to join Sorosis and Shakespeare Club for an inspirational presentation from Gerry Anschutz and Joyce Hansen. They were members of a volunteer mission to the Holy Land.

Pictures, maps, information and hand-carved gifts were handsomely displayed throughout their well-planned presentation.

The first meeting in October was planned for Oct. 13 at the library with a presentation on Colby tourism by Leilani Thomas.
