Brewster showing signs of fall, winter coming on

It is clouding up and the temperature is dropping this Tuesday afternoon, so maybe we'll get some moisture before the day is finished. Feels like winter is upon us.

Mason and Betty Crumrine are proud grandparents of a baby boy, Corey Mason. Parents are Darin and Sarah of Sedgwick.

Pauline Lemmer is out of ICU, but still in hospital after her stroke. Lora Depe is also still in the hospital in Colby. Wayne Deeds is now in the Colby hospital after his fall. Ruth Jones is home now, trying to get her strength back. Our prayers go to all.

Don't forget the United Methodist Church will be having their annual Turkey Supper Wednesday,

Betty Jo Baird

Winona resident celebrates 100 years

1906 to 2006 WOW! Winona was early in it's infancy when Hazel Koons was born. Now living in Infinita at Colby she's as sharp as a tack when approached in jest. She still has a sense of humor. Her family honored her with a 100th birthday celebration at Infinita Saturday, Oct. 7.

Her immediate family hosting the reception were her daughter, Velda Kelly and Velda's husband, Dale Kelly, of Topeka, and Hazel's son, Jim Koons and his wife, Kathy Koons of St. James, Mo. The Kelly family present was Sandi McChristy and Erin of Pittsburg, Larry Kelly of Lawrence, Connie Gibson of Winona, Miss., and Kit Kelly and Cody of Topeka. Jim's and Kathy's family who attended was Michael and Shelly Koons, Zachary and Braden of St. James,

Jean Lowe

Mo., Ken and Lori Dixon, Dakota and Tanner of St. James were unable to attend. Extended family members present were Wayne and Iva Gee of Hutchinson, Erma Gee, Michael and Tammy Gee of Oakley, and Lindy and Lola Bretz of Wallace. Area residents attending the reception were Verlin and Norma Lee Plummer, Erma Latham, Pam Lewallen, Jean Lowe, Bob Arnberger, and Darline Stramel.

Harold and Carolyn Herring of Grove, Okla., have spent the past week in Winona with Dorothy Moulden and Lynn Moulden.

The October meeting of the Winona Chamber of Commerce was held at the Winona Bar and Grill Tuesday morning. Members present were president, Judy Gfeller, Marge Ausmus, Linda Latham, Pat Margheim, Louise Smith and LaVonne Baxter. They made plans for their major fundraiser, the annual ham and bean dinner which is held the first Saturday of pheasant season.

They use the proceeds to bring Santa to Winona with treats for all children. They also provide a meal each year at the annual Triplains Homecoming. Community support is appreciated. You, in turn, will appreciate the delicious meal, topped off with home-made pie. Circle Saturday, Nov. 4 on your calendar to enjoy eating out and renewing old acquaintances.

While on the subject of food, the Winona United Methodist Ladies won't be outdone considering the selection and quality of food at their annual smorgasbord. It took place at the Winona U.M. Church Monday evening. There was a constant flow of diners filling every available chair. There were many out of town guests.

Our college-bound Vikings seem to blend into society and out of the home town spotlight. It's a pleasure when news surfaces of their accomplishments. One example is Susanna Smith, a student at Fort Hays State University, who is a member of the marching band. She received many awards while a student at Triplains and is utilizing her talents on the flute in college.

Ruth Smith and children attended homecoming at Fort Hays to see Susanna perform with the band.

Hey, kids at Triplains, one of your favorite groups of entertainers is coming to Winona. The Wichita Children's Theater will present a modern version of "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" Friday in the Triplains Auditorium.

Even though the Sunday and Monday rainfall delayed fall harvest, it was a bonanza for the recently drilled wheat. The fields have been transformed into a vast expanse of nature's green.

Logan County was blessed with generous amounts of rain. Max Kriegh said, "We had a total right at two inches." He lives on the Logan/Thomas County line. Page City reported approximately 2.25 inches. Oren and Kathy Dirks were happy with the 1.72 inches they received, especially since they had all their corn harvested and the wheat drilled, plus the milo was not ready to cut. 1.40 inches fell on the Kirk farmstead. Winona reported approximately 1.60 and Russell Springs had 1.25. The manner in which the rain fell, so gently with no wind, made everyone happy.

Lions Club gets new members

Lion President Hazel Estes called the meeting to order and asked for Lions with guests to introduce them. President Estes introduced District Governor Don Keihl and his wife Mary.

Lion John Mead introduced his Son Aaron and Chad Arasmith, Lion Roger Hale introduced his guests, Sarah and Roger Herren.

Following the flag salute, invocation and singing one chorus of America, Lion Mead asked Chad Arasmith to address the club concerning Orscheln Farm and Home grand opening Oct. 27-29. Mr. Arasmith asked the club if they would like to help with their opening of their new store location.

"The store opened today (Oct. 9) but we will have our grand opening on the 27-29," Arasmith said. "We would like for your club to help us celebrate moving into a 36,000 square foot facility. Orscheln's is a community store and we want the community to be involved and have a fun time."

"I am not the manager, I'm from McCook, I am here to coordinate the opening activities.

Orschelen's is offering your club space indoors and out and we will help you anyway we can in having a good time."

Lion Hazel appointed a committee of Lions Herrens, Parrish, Jones, Britten, and Hale to work with Orschelens.

It was decided that the club would ask the scouts and want-a-be Leos to help with a car wash, costume contest, pumpkin carving, on Saturday. The club would have a diabetes display, eye glasses and hearing aid collection box all three days. Saturday the club would have a bake sale, caramel apples and serve eggs and sausage for breakfast in the and at noon serve lunch. Sunday noon the club will serve lunch and caramel apples. Some of the activities may have to be adjusted to the weather.

President Estes asked District Governor Keihl to install three new members into the club. District Governor Keihl ask for Roger and Sarah Herren and their sponsor, Lion Hale and Tammy Parrish and her sponsor Lion Mead to come forward for the ceremony.

Following the ceremony District Governor Keihl addressed the club. He brought greeting from International President Lion Jimmy Ross. He presented past president Lion Sheryl Brenn with a certificate and diamond pin for net club growth during her presidency.

Lion Keihl also presented 100 percent attendance for the past year to Lions Sheryl Brenn, Francis Britten and President Hazel Estes. The District Governor also recognized two past District Governors, Lion Elmer Lawver, 1996 and Lion Larry Koon, 1985. He also recognized Lion Jim Morrison for all his work in getting the Lions Web site up and working.

He encouraged all clubs and members to use the Internet to keep informed of activities in the district.

In other club business, reports were given and thank you cards were read.

President Hazel reminded the club that this is sight month and November is Diabetes Month.

The next meeting will be Oct. 23.
