

Eagles ousted in pool

In an attempt to improve from its fourth place finish at state a year ago, Colby High's volleyball team did not get out of pool play Friday at the state tournament in Salina. "We just didn't play up to our level," said Colby coach Lesley Wagoner. Colby lost all three of its matches in pool play. Colby, seeded seventh, started the day against second seed Augusta. Augusta won in two matches, 25-19, 25-16. The Eagles' second match was against Topeka-Hayden, a team Colby has seen before at the state tournament the past two years. Topeka-Hayden, seeded third, won in three matches 25-18, 22-25, 25-16. "In our second match against Topeka, we played better, but they dug up a lot of our hits," said Colby assistant coach Ronnie Dietz. Colby's last pool play match was against sixth seed Girard. Colby again fell in the three matches, 19-25, 25-23, 25-21. "In our final match we played together as a team," said Wagoner. Two of Colby's opponents Friday advanced to play on Saturday. Augusta defeated Towanda-Circle in two matches in the semifinals. Topeka-Hayden lost to Eudora 2-0, but bounced back to defeat Towanda-Circle 2-1 for third place. Eudora defeated Augusta 2-0 to win the 4A championship.

Hills get best of Colby boys

It was an uphill battle for the Colby high boys cross country team at the state meet Saturday in Wamego. Colby coach Bob Mannebach said his team, and other runners, all were concerned about the hills along the meet. "We struggled on the hills," Mannebach said. "Even the best runners struggled on the hills." Those struggles led Colby to a ninth place finish with 192 points. El Dorado won the 4A meet with 63 points. "For the boys, our goal was to place in the top six," Mannebach said. Josh Baden led Colby finishing in 21st place in 17:56. Baden was 54 seconds behind the first place finisher. Darren Sporing followed Baden coming in 28th in 18:09. Kahle Phillips placed 67th in 19:15. Ryan Baalmann came in 72nd in 19:24. Matt Kaus came in 81st in 19:40. Trevor Powell finished 87th in 19:58. Placing behind El Dorado were Baldwin, 70; DeSoto, 94; Wamego, 101; Tonganoxie, 164; Mulvane, 178; Buhler, 182 and Paola, 190. Colby's lone girl runner, Paige Stephens, finished 53rd in 16:20. DeSoto girls won the 4A meet with 67 points followed by Baldwin, 83; Wamego, 113; Clearwater, 125; Clay Center, 137; Andale, 139; El Dorado, 198; Tonganoxie, 211; Buhler, 212; Eudora, 213, Augusta, 258 and Circle, 261.

Oakley takes third at state

From Hays Daily News
Once the third-place medals and trophy had been awarded to the Oakley prep volleyball team, the tears continued to run down coach Charlotte Baalman's face. The Plainsmen had just finished the last of five matches in two days at the Class 2A state tournament, and Baalman was pleased. Her team had just completed a 27-25, 25-13 win on the Gross Memorial Coliseum floor against St. Marys. It came after the Plainsmen had lost an emotional three-game semifinal to Valley Heights. "It took them a little while and they worried me," Baalman said of the Plainsmen's start against St. Marys. "I was afraid they were down in the dumps. I was afraid that if they weren't in the championship, they wouldn't want to play at all. The kids showed they could do it, and they started to get excited. I think that winning feeling came back to them." In pool play on Friday, the Plainsmen made an impressive run by going to 2-1. In their first match, Oakley dropped No. 4 seed St. John 25-20, 25-22, then after being swept by Moundridge, they bounced back to beat Cimarron in two games. In the third-place match though, Oakley (29-9) had to bounce back from the heartbreaker against Valley Heights. A match in which the final game see-sawed until the Mustangs pulled away for a 25-22 win. Oakley took the first game 25-20, then lost 25-21, forcing the decisive game.

"Kind of scared, but we wanted to pull it off," Oakley senior Callie Baalman said of the third-place match. "We wanted to win. We were determined to win. We were kind of upset after losing our first game, but we came back, and we won." In what looked like might be a hangover from the semifinal, the Plainsmen struggled to get started against St. Marys. The Bears led by as much as by six, and Oakley trailed 24-19. The Plainsmen found the spark needed, and a Baalman kill gave Oakley a 25-24 lead. On the next point, a Baalman kill attempt was called just long. "I thought it might have been in at first," Callie Baalman said. "The linesman is way back there so they probably have a better view than me."

Dani Bedore led Brewster with 47 kills during the day. Avery Schultz led Brewster serving with 37 points, two aces and a 97 percent success rate. Bedore served eight aces and 36 points. "We fell short of our season goal, but we sure had fun and a lot of success along the way," McKee said. Brewster finished the season 35-6.

Brewster falls to top two in 1A

Brewster's volleyball team had some tough company. Brewster did not get out of its pool Friday at the 1A state tournament in Hays but the state champion and runner up did. "We played three really tough matches, unfortunately we didn't come out ahead in any of them," said coach Lynda McKee. "We were in an extremely tough pool and all four teams were evenly matched." Brewster started the day losing to Little River, 21-25, 23-25. Centralia, which eventually won the state title, defeated Brewster 25-23, 14-25, 25-22. Then Brewster faced Quivira Heights, who lost to Centralia in the finals. Quivira won 25-22, 26-28, 25-18.
