

Returning starters key for Trojans

From Colby Community College

Last year in his first season as head coach of the Trojan men's basketball program, John Woods didn't know what to expect from his team. Woods guided the Trojans to a 15-16 record overall, 7-9 in the tough Jayhawk Conference West Division, and a first-round conference tournament victory.

The Trojans may have exceeded pre-season expectations with the first-round tournament victory, but the Trojans were disappointed with the season-ending loss to Dodge City in the second-round of the tournament. The Trojans let a second-half lead slip away and ended up losing by three points.

"We'll have a better team game this year and less individual play," Woods said. "Whatever we lost after last season, we'll make up with the experience we have returning and teamwork."

With last year's successes and failures in mind, Woods begins his second season with more expectations.

Woods said his team can be better than last year, despite losing the backcourt combination of Nate Bowie and Hellion Knight, who accounted for nearly 35 points a game.

Colby returns three starters and two more players who also saw playing time. The returning starters are 7-1 sophomore Jorge Canedo, 6-8 sophomore John Ortiz and 6-3 Juan Camilo Londono. Canedo averaged 14 points per game and nearly nine rebounds per game last season.

The Trojans also return guard Irvan Meyers and forward Tyler Turner.

Woods listed three freshmen as potential contributors in point guard Shedric "Rick" Cole, Cedric Dixon and Jerome Haywood.

"We have a good, solid group of freshman coming in," Woods said. "Rick (Cole) will give our team leadership at the point guard position."

Colby Community College Trojan basketball players scrimmaged during a recent practice. Colby's first home game of the season is during the Ambassador Classic Nov. 9-11.

Colby wins first game

The Colby Community College men's basketball team defeated Bethany College 74-50 Wednesday at Bethany.

"We played sloppy and made a lot of mistakes and turnovers," coach John Woods said. "We were not as aggressive as we needed to be in the first half. We played more aggressive on defensive end of the floor in the second half." The Trojans had four players score in double figures, led by Camilo Londono with 19 points. Jorge Canedo had 17 points and eight rebounds, John Ortiz had 15 points, seven rebounds and six steals.

Michael Mosley contributed 14 points, six rebounds and three steals.

The Trojans play Friday in Scottsbluff, Neb., at the Western Nebraska Tournament.

While expectations on the court may be higher than last season, the academic goals of the team are always at the highest level. After finishing seventh in total team grade point average in the NJCAA, the men's basketball team strives to be the top team in GPA in the conference and finish in the top five in the nation.

Colby's first home game is Nov. 9 in the annual Ambassador Classic. Colby plays Buckley Air Force Base.
