

Elk ranching in Sheridan County

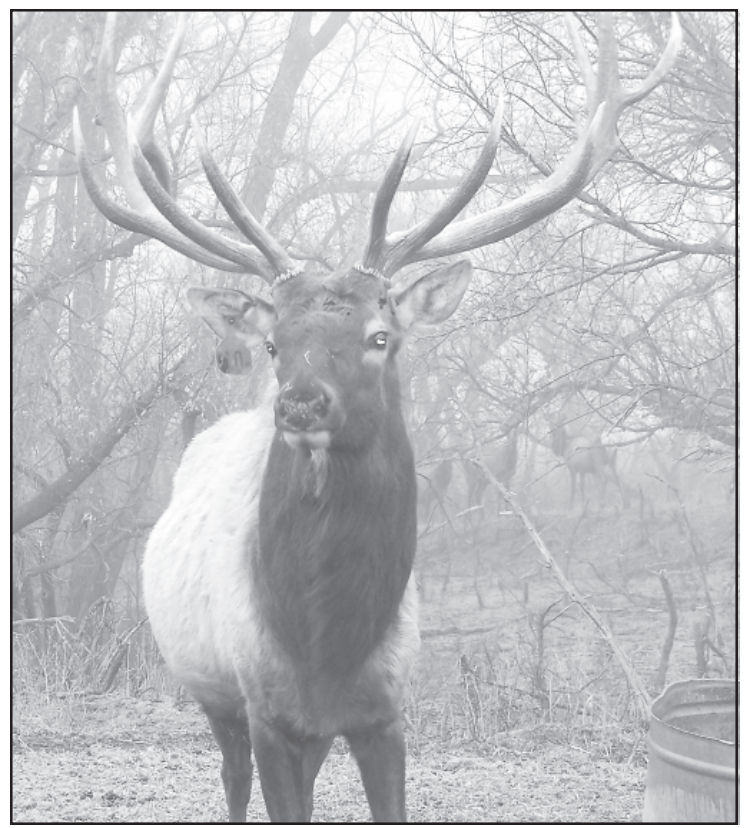

Bill Bainter played with an elk calf which is part of the herd at Bainter Elk Ranch. The calf was abandoned by its mother and had to be hand fed.

ABOVE: Three elk bulls walked around in fog which blanketed much of Bainter Elk Ranch owned by Bill Bainter located in northeast Sheridan County. The bulls are part of a herd of approximately 150 elk which Bainter breeds and sells for locker meat or arranged hunts. RIGHT: Prince William carries a 7 point rack on each side of his head. He is one of three breeding bulls currently being used at the ranch.

Elk cows stand along an 8-foot tall fence line as "ladies in waiting" Sunday morning in fog which blanketed Bainter Elk Ranch owned by Bill Bainter. The ranch is located in northeast Sheridan County.
