Horned Frogs roll

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The most exciting ballcarrier on the field, at times, was TCU quarterback Jeff Ballard.

It certainly wasn't Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe, who ended his career looking more like a third-stringer than the national rushing leader.

Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Wolfe was held to 28 yards and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7 on Tuesday night.

Bowl standings

The first standings of the 2006 College Bowl Spectacular is expected to be released Wednesday, Dec. 27.

Area college football fans selected who they think will win this season's bowl games. The contest is sponsored by the Colby Free Press/Country Advocate, KXXX 790 AM/KQLS 100.3 The Ride and Western Distributing of Norton.

Jayhawks all over Winston-Salem

LAWRENCE (AP) — Though outmanned and outclassed, Winston-Salem still worked hard.

The Rams, struggling in their first season as a Division I program, never had a chance Tuesday night against No. 11 Kansas, which was refreshed and rested after a 10-day break.

The Jayhawks (9-2) got their running game in high gear and had five players in double figures in a 94-43 rout.

But Winston-Salem (1-14), which got a $65,000 guarantee for the game, impressed with a never-say-die approach.

"They were playing hard. Coach had been telling us they would come on and compete hard, and they sure did," said Kansas' Sasha Kaun, who had a career-high 11 points in his first start of the season. "They were very competitive."

Brandon Rush and Julian Wright each scored 15 points for Kansas, which had every advantage over the smaller, slower and less experienced Rams.

"I tried to prepare them early about being mentally tough and being prepared to play in the environments we have to go to," Rams coach Bobby Collins said. "To actually experience it is the challenge."

The Rams, a longtime power in Division II, are struggling in their first season in Division I. It was their 11th straight loss.
