The Colby boy's team took over in the fourth quarter to beat Holcomb 53-43.

In the fourth quarter, with Colby and Holcomb tied at 40, Trey Barnett hit a three-point shot and was fouled and made both free throws. His play gave the team a five-point lead, which put the Eagles ahead for good.

Barnett lead the Eagles with 21 points.

Colby and Holcomb played a close game throughout all four quarters, Holcomb entered the game with a 5-1 record. Colby coach Beau Sheets was pleased the boys were finally able to take the lead in the fourth.

"We played well. It was good to come from behind and win. It was good for the team," said Sheets.

Sheets said he likes how his puts forth their best against tough competitors.

"We are good at competing. We've played some really tough teams and had a chance to win every game," said Sheets.

Following Barnett were senior Trevor Siebert and junior Ethan Stover with 11 points.

Girls

Lissa Mazanek, a Colby junior, shot to the top with 20 points and 15 rebounds. Close behind her were senior Ashley Barnes and junior Paige Stephens who each scored 10 points. Tasha Wagoner, junior, had seven assists.

Colby coach Derek Bissitt was pleased with the way the Lady

Eagles played after having a long break with few practices.

"We did a really good job the first week back after Christmas. I was really pleased with the intensity level," said Bissitt.

The girls were able to win by 39 points due to good work offensively and defensively.

"We really got after it defensively and we ran the floor offensively. We had a lot of energy and were really aggressive," said Bissitt.

Bissitt said the team will have the chance to prove their efforts with three tough games this week against McCook, Neb., Hoxie and Hays.

"There is a lot of good competition coming up," he said.
