Colby women 3-0 in Jayhawk

The Colby Community College women's basketball team won its third straight conference game Wednesday, 70-61 victory over Dodge City.

Sandra Sormaz led the Lady Trojans with 25 points. Jamie Schroeder had a good all-around game, scoring 22 points, pulling down 14 rebounds, and dishing out five assists.

Jacci Tinkel was also in double figures with 12 points.

The Lady Trojans travel to El Dorado Saturday to face the Butler County Lady Grizzlies.

The Colby women are 7-10 overall and 3-0 in conference play.

Men

The Colby Community College men's basketball team lost 74-61 Wednesday to Dodge City, the No.

15-ranked team in the NJCAA.

Camilo Londono led the Trojans with 16 points. Jorge Canedo had 15 points, 16 rebounds and six assists. John Ortiz contributed eight points and eight rebounds.

The Trojans travel to El Dorado Saturday to face Butler County.

Colby men are 7-10 overall and 1-2 in conference play.

Trojan baseball team to hold 'tryathlon'

The Trojan baseball team will hold its annual Try-Athlon 10:30 a.m. Feb. 3 at Colby Bowl with a calcutta.

Teams consisting of four members will compete Baker format bowling, 9-ball pool and darts. Point totals will be awarded for the position of team finish in each event. Prizes will be awarded for the winner of each event and for the top four overall teams. All teams will rotate events until they complete them all.

Also, available to each team is a "bullpen." A reliever can be brought in for any team member at any time. Once the original player is relieved, he or she is out for the remainder of that particular game but not the entire Try-Athlon.

The entry fee is $160 per team ($40 per player). This will include the cost of all games, a large pizza for lunch and two drink tickets per player. A bullpen cost is $15 per reliever.

Contact baseball coach Ryan Carter at 460-5447 for more information. The field is limited to 36 teams.

Jayhawks dominate

LAWRENCE (AP) — Packed house, ranked opponent, and the ball in the low post all night long.

Sasha Kaun had waited all season for a game like this.

The Jayhawks' junior center, who missed the first three games with an injured left knee and had averaged 5.3 points and 15.4 minutes since then, broke out with a season-high 16 points in No. 6 Kansas' 87-57 rout of No. 9 Oklahoma State on Wednesday night.

"I think this is the first big game for me to contribute to the team," said Kaun, who played sparingly and didn't score in an 82-80 overtime win over then-No. 1 Florida on Nov. 25. "It felt really good tonight."

Brandon Rush led the Jayhawks (14-2, 1-0 Big 12) with 18 points. Darnell Jackson and Sherron Collins added 10 points each for Kansas, which won its eighth straight and snapped the Cowboys' four-game winning streak.

Oklahoma State (15-2, 1-1) lost its 32nd straight road game against a top 10 team. The Cowboys have not won in a top 10 opponent's home gym since a 52-50 overtime victory against the Jayhawks — ranked No. 2 at the time — on Jan. 2, 1958.

Kansas' victory was its widest against a top 10 opponent since a 94-61 rout of then-No. 9 Marquette in the 2003 NCAA semifinals. It was Oklahoma State's most lopsided loss since an 80-46 loss at Texas on Jan. 23, 2006.

"It's one of the most embarrassing moments I've been a part of," Cowboys coach Sean Sutton said. "I've been a part of so many great games in this series, and we didn't do our part tonight."

The Cowboys shot 32 percent (17-for-53) and committed 20 turnovers, while Kansas had 17 steals, tied for the Jayhawks' second most in a conference game. Kansas scored 23 points off turnovers, outscored the Cowboys 18-0 on fast breaks and 48-18 in the paint.

"They are a great team, but it was just a real bad night for us," Oklahoma State guard James On Curry said. "I can't make an explanation for it. We just played bad."

Kansas led by as many as 22 points in the first half, but Curry's 4-point play on a foul by Collins got Oklahoma State within 53-40 with 15 minutes to go. The Jayhawks responded with a 16-5 run over the next 5:47, padding their lead to 69-45, and added a 12-0 run — capped by Darrell Arthur's thundering dunk — to make it 81-48 with just over 4 minutes left.

Curry and Kenny Cooper led the Cowboys with 12 points each and Terrel Harris added 10.

Mario Boggan, who came in as the Big 12's second-leading scorer at 21.9 points per game, was held to a season-low eight points on 4-for-16 shooting.

Curry had been fifth in the conference with an 18.9-point average.

"Our goal coming in tonight was to cut off the two heads, Curry and Boggan," Rush said. "We couldn't let them get going."

Bulldog girls shoot well

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs zoomed past Weskan 66-49 in quarter-final action of the Western Kansas Liberty League Tournament Monday in Rexford.

Golden Plains shot hot 57 percent (26-46) from the floor for the game while holding the Coyotes to 33 percent (18-55).

Senior Katelyn Spresser netted 26 points and had five steals while sister Kendra Spresser added 21 and 10 assists. Aisha Walter scored seven while Amanda Rall tallied six for Golden Plains.

Golden Plains (7-0) will face Greeley County Friday in Goodland.

Golden Plains' boys team also play Friday in Goodland. Golden Plains defeated Grinnell-Wheatland.

Eagle JV girls fall

Colby High's junior varsity girls team lost 48-45 Tuesday at McCook, Neb.

The Eagles were unable to recover from a 12-point deficit in the first quarter and struggled with free throws. Colby was 15-36 from the line.

April Gee led Colby with 11 points. Taylor Young scored 10. Colby is 3-3.
