Writer reminds readers about election

The first thing I want to remind you of is April 3. That is Election Day. It will be held at the Brewster Senior Center.

The center will be opened for election only that day, so there will not be lunch served.

So don't forget to get out and vote. The college issue is a very important one, and we need to have our vote count.

We need to keep Lawrence Tiedman, Harvey Benham, Howard Carney, Nadine Kammer

Duane and Ruth Jones went to Goodland Sunday March 1, and had dinner at Hank's with 10 of their friends.

As I have mentioned before, the Brewster Grocery Store is doing very well and is very well stocked. So, if you haven't been in, check it out. I know you will be pleasantly surprised.

LeAnne Carney's computer class has been rescheduled for March 29 at 6 p.m. Central Time.

Spirit never fails. While it may seem as if you can call out and get no answer, spirit never fails to answer a sincere call. We will call a friend 10 or 20 times until we get an answer. Yet we call out to spirit once and only half expect an answer. Unfortunately, many of our calls to spirit are filled with doubt, fear, unreasonable demands, and unworthy requests. These calls will receive a busy signal. Only when we open our hearts, bring forth the pure unadulterated truth, and rely on spirit to show up, will we receive the divine response, in the divine way, in the divine time. Spirit never fails. We, however, often fail to make the proper connections.

Museum planning open house

Area News

An open house to celebrate two anniversaries will take place at the Cheyenne County Museum from 2-4 p.m. on Sunday, April 15.

The celebration honors 40 years since the society's organizational meeting in January 1967 and the first meeting in the Museum on March 8, 1987, 20 years ago.

The open house is to show appreciation for all who have built and sustained the Museum and the Historical Society.

During the afternoon, guests can tour the museum; view scrapbooks compiled by Betty Lampe, documenting the history of the museum in photos; and receive a brochure which gives a brief history of the museum and society.

Margaret Bucholtz will be recognized as the new director of the museum.

All volunteers, past and present, who attend will receive a form to fill out so they can "tell the story" of their involvement with the Historical Society and/or museum. The forms will be compiled into an ongoing Recognition Notebook. Those who cannot attend will have a chance to tell their story by calling the museum for a form, or stopping in to get one, after the open house.
